

Gold Star Mothers
Slate Luncheon Feb. 24

The Gold Star Mothers of Farmington (Blue Star Mothers Chapter) are sponsoring a "Luncheon is Served" luncheon and card party in the I.O.O.F. Hall at 2911 Inkster Road, Monday, Feb. 24.

Lunch will be served at noon and cards will follow in the afternoon. Mrs. Ethel Lint and Mrs. May Fox are serving as chairmen.

The public is invited to attend.

Kiwanis Fete Wives, Hear Lincoln Scholar

The Farmington Kiwanis Club members entertained their wives and visiting couples from the Brighton Kiwanis at a dinner at Himmelspach's dining room Tuesday evening, February 18.

Kiwanis Vice-President Charles Merryman, 3030 Glenmore Road, presented the speaker, Mr. Walter Drollinger, prominent attorney and student of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Drollinger illustrated his talk on Lincoln by quotation of little known stories used by Mr. Lincoln to win the many arguments that beset his administration.

MR. AND MRS. VAN FULTON

Van Fultons Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Feb. 2

Mr. and Mrs. Van Fulton of 21223 Farmington Road were feted Sunday, February 2, at a surprise Golden Wedding Anniversary party given them by their children.

Approximately 150 relatives and friends were in attendance.

It was exactly 50 years ago that Miss Catherine, 21, and Mr. Van Fulton and Nettie Parker were joined in marriage at Kirksey, Kentucky. It was in a horse-drawn buggy that the 14-year-old bride and 22-year-old bridegroom repeated their marriage vows that day.

The Fultons have nine children, 30 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren.

When asked how they felt after having been married 50 years, Van and Nettie both replied that they thanked God for all of their wonderful years together and for the good health of their family.

Mrs. Alice Gauthier of Maribeh used the Valentine motif for decorations in entertaining her 50th birthday club last week. Members of the club are Julia Montgomery, Pat Hart, Mary Crain, Marian Rourke, Lottie Halseki, Shirley Griffiths and Irma Abbey.

Denise Johnson, 12-year-old daughter of the Robert Johnson family, really "howled" them over Monday afternoon in the Junior Bowling League. She maintains a 74 average and bowled 111 and 132 games.

Cub Scouts and their families are having a pot-luck dinner on Thursday, February 20th, at the Farmington High School. Members of Den 17, Pack 45, will receive awards. The Den consists of Tom Mayberger, Ronald Brillingers, Terry Toomey, Denny Richardson, Bobby Williamson, John Sewell, and Jim Jeffers.

Eva Mistak of Loomis wishes to thank everyone that sent Susan cards. She reports that Susie is home from the hospital now and is recovering fine.

Shirley and Ray Lindberg and children of Leola enjoyed a weekend of skiing at Sherburne Valley in Lewistown, Michigan, recently. They spend their summer vacations up there and report that it is just as beautiful in its winter finery.

The Hill and Dale Garden Club reported a very successful benefit card party. Among the prize winners were Shirley Ford, Ann Jones, Joan Stowe, Lois Court and (was my face red) myself from our subdivision.

Without sounding repetitious this column will be just as interesting as you make it. Unless you call me and tell me the "going on" at your house this column will be nil. Don't think it is "blowing your own horn" for your neighbors are sincerely interested.

New England Women To Meet March 1

The regular meeting of the Redford-Farmington Colony of the National Society of New England Women will be held Saturday, March 1st, at the home of Mrs. William Kuster, St. Mary's Avenue.

The board meeting will be at 12:00 o'clock followed by the regular business meeting.

A musical program given by foreign students and a talk on "A European Adventure" will conclude the program.

Roast pork at 325 degrees until it is grayish white with no tinge of red, say Michigan State University home economists. Chops and steaks are either braised or fried in their own fat.

Afternoon Group Newcomers Meet Scheduled Feb. 26

Guest speaker at a meeting of the Farmington Afternoon Newcomers Club next Wednesday, February 25, will be "Mr. Do!" of the Royal Oak Do-it-Yourself store.

The meeting will be held at Farmington Savings at 10 Mile and Orchard Lake Road starting at 12:30 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling Mary Crawford, Hilda Custer or Peg Brown, Mrs. Brown will also handle transportation arrangements.

At a recent meeting of the group new officers and committee heads were elected. They are: Donna Tupper, president; Janet Perry, vice president; Shirley Kelly, secretary; E. Jones, treasurer; Kay Seals, hospitality; Barbara Kelly, membership; and Amber McDonald, corresponding secretary.

Detroit Changes To Be Discussed At Public Meet

William B. Saunders of the Information Department of Detroit Edison Company will speak on "The Renaissance of a City" at the regular monthly meeting of the American Association of University Women, February 27, 1958 at 8:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Clayton Timmons and Mrs. Kenneth Leachman, program chairwomen, stated Mr. Saunders will discuss changes in Detroit, the development of the Civic Center, the construction of the expressways and the effects of the St. Lawrence Seaway on Detroit. He will use slides to illustrate his talk of the past, present and future of the city of Detroit.

Mr. Saunders has been with Detroit Edison since 1929 serving in the capacity of commercial office manager, chief assistant of advertising division and with the sales department. He attended Wickers Academy of Fine Arts and the Detroit Institute of Technology.

The meeting will be held in the Community Room of Farmington Savings and Loan on Ten Mile at Orchard Lake Road.

Named to McCall's Patterns' Teen Fashion Board

Miss Yvonne Manseau, 31918 Highview, Farmington, has been elected to McCall's Patterns' Teen Fashion Board for the 1957-1958 school year, according to an announcement by Kit Mason, School Service Director of the Pattern Company.

She is one of 800 senior high school students from all over the country nominated to the Board by their home economics teachers on the basis of sewing skill, fashion knowledge and school leadership. Only one student from each school is eligible.

As a member of the Teen Fashion Board, each girl is deemed qualified to act as an advisor to the design department of McCall's Patterns, and is sent special advance fashion material from New York throughout the year. Every board member also receives a membership certificate, card and pin, and a McCall's Pattern of her choice.

Honored With Party On 85th Birthday

Mrs. Maggie Catherman celebrated her 85th birthday on Sunday, February 16, with a party given for her at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harold Quinn at Orchard Lake, Farmington.

Family and friends attended including eight living children and their families. One of the group was a great-grandchild of Mrs. Catherman who also celebrated her birthday on this same date.

Three birthday cakes were served along with coffee. Mrs. Catherman was presented with many lovely gifts.

Lady Of Sorrows Girl Scout News

Forty scout leaders, co-leaders and high school students at Our Lady of Sorrows have been participating for the past three weeks in the American Red Cross first-aid course.

The group was organized to take this four week course by Mrs. Wallace Wagner, Neighborhood Chairman of O.L.S. Girl Scout units. Instructions in the course are being given by John Irwin of Farmington.

Girl Scout members of Group 352 of O.L.S., escorted by their leader, Mrs. James Dully, and co-leader, Mrs. Edwin Elto, made an interesting trip to a glass plant in Keego Harbor last Wednesday for the purpose of advancing toward the attaining of their O.L.S. Badge.

Local Doctor to Speak At Health Class Tonight

One of the highlights of the winter session for the Women Health and Self Improvement class will be the talk given this Thursday evening by a local doctor, Joseph J. Gadbaw, M.D.

Dr. Gadbaw's address will cover such topics as dangers of overweight; the need for proper nutrition; and supplemental foods while dieting.

The health class meets in Farmington High School at 7:30 p.m. each Thursday evening, and Dr. Gadbaw's talk, followed by a question and answer period, will begin at 8:30.

All women in the area with a weight problem are welcome.
