Top talent and top tunes have now been selected for the eleventh annual "Fine N' Dandy" minstrel show, sponsored by the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce.

William Conroy, show director, announced this week that some of the solo acts have now been selected for the show, coming to the Farmington Junior High School on March 21 and 22.

Included among those selected is the grand old man of Farmington show business, Tom Glendfield. Tom will do the old soft shoe. Carolyn Smith will be singing and playing her guitar for the second year and Bob Hand and Steve Leathley will sing some baritone solos.

Change Site For New Grade School

Official action was taken by the School Board Monday night, calling for the relocation of the next new elementary school to be constructed from a site in Section 14 to another in Section 22 in Farmington Township.

The new site is located just north of Alameda and east of Power Road.

Inability to obtain a suitable easement of the site in Section 14 at the present time prompted the change in plans.

Architect Earl Meyers was authorized to proceed with final plans for the new school. The plans next week. The school is to be built on Thursday, March 27.

W.M.U. Alumni Plan to Form Club in Area

Alumni of Western Michigan University in the northwest metropolitan area of Detroit met recently at four separate open houses to discuss the formation of an alumni club in the area.

Two of these open houses were held in Farmington, one at the home of Miss Minnie Ziegle at 28319 Greenwillow and the other at the home of Virgil Westdale at 28485 Highmeadow Drive.

Other two were held at the homes of Nick Abide of Ferndale and Robert Bonde of Southfield.

Formation of a club for this area is part of an effort now underway to tie the area of Western Michigan University Alumni Clubs across the nation.

The large WMU Alumni Club meeting for northwest Detroiters is being planned for the latter part of March if arrangements can be made in time. Part of the meeting will be for orientation and organization of the club but entertainment is also being planned, it was indicated.

Persons who have attended Western Michigan and desire more information about the proposed club are asked to call either Miss Ziegle, GR. 4-7126; or Mr. Westdale, MA 6-6273.

Among those attending the open houses from the Farmington-Southfield area were: Harold Humble, Eldora McCaskill, Lee Peel, Carl Wilson, Joyce Gould, Mr. and Mrs. William Stienke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Leland Smith, Pat Doppel, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bears, Don Haynes, William Irvin, Tom Trainor and Vern Krieger. Did You Know?

THAT MARCH is a very interesting month?

THAT on March 4, 1282 Pennsylvania was founded; March 3, 1817 the first U. S. postage stamp was used; March 11, 1911, the Lend-Lease Act was signed; March 12, 1919 the Girl Scouts were founded; March 14, 1925, the first Trans-Atlantic broadcast was made; March 15, 1767, Andrew Jackson was born; March 16, 1802, West Point was founded; March 17, St. Patrick's Day is celebrated?

THAT March 20 is the first day of Spring... That March 30 is Palm Sunday?

THAT another interesting thing about March is that Davis and Lent starts shelling new Spring and Summer Goods, for the man who wants to look his best all the time?

Holly Hills Farms News Notes

MRS. BERNARD J. CANTOR MA. 6-5259

Following a kickoff coffee and briefing session at the home of the chairman, Mrs. I. Bud Kaufman, the mothers of Mrs. Kaufman's committee began their March on Holly Hills on Tuesday evening, January 22. One of this winter's most blustery days, Mrs. L. David Ash, Mrs. Carl Gustafson, Mrs. Charles Hollis, and Mrs. John Najjar had collected $71.61 for the polo drive. During the after-school hours, Leslie Ash and Bobby Hollis aided their parents in the doorknob campaign.

Welcome to Wendy Lee Jesmore, new daughter of Donald and Beverly Jesmore, born at 9 a.m. on Monday, February 12, at William Beaumont Hospital. We are also happy to announce that Dad Don is now recovering from his severe bout with the mumps.

Don's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Jesmore of Kalkaska, Michigan, have been recent guests, nurses, and all-around general assistants during this busy time at the Jesmore household. Mrs. C. V. Thompson of Flint, Mrs. Jesmore's mother, after her visit to see the baby, returned home with the baby's brother and sister, Bonnie and Gale, as her own houseguests.

A coffee party was held at the home of Mrs. T. W. Witt on Saturday afternoon, February 15. Co-hostesses for this get-together for the ladies of the subdivision were Mrs. Daniel Green, Mrs. Charles Hollis, Mrs. Tully Rector, Mrs. Michael Tsou and Mrs. Ray Wark.

The bridge players in any group always seem to be the first to organize - and so at Holly Hills, where for the third time bridge evenings have been held. On Tuesday, February 18, Mrs. I. Bud Kaufman was hostess to bridge tables at her home. Mrs. Virgil Westdale is busy receiving calls from all interested fans who want to play in future months. The services of Bud Kaufman and Jim Erker are guaranteed to dig out all ladies' snowbound cars and get them started, as was necessary at 1 a.m. the evening of the latest party. For bridge meetings held during the summer months, Bud and Jim have been engaged to wave palm branch fans.

Joining the ranks of the ladies who can tell you all about their operation, three year old Joanne Weiner has just had her tonsils out. We understand that her mother and father, Betty and Ned Weiner, are recovering nicely from the ordeal.

The story of the mountain and Mohammed is common, but Mrs. Michael Tsou can now relate her

Twp. Police to Present Play

Chief Irving Yakes was given permission by the township board Tuesday to go ahead with a benefit program May 3 for the Police Welfare Fund.

Proceeds would go for welfare work, for the police entry in Little League baseball, and to sponsor teen-age dances.

The police group will set up a non-profit corporation, and the board asked details of this before giving a final okay.
