MRS. RUTH TROMBLEY GR. 4-2050

Don and Gloria Shuster of Folkstone Ct. are a proud couple. They have a lovely income tax deduction for their house. The little lady is named Nancy Kaye, born January 25th. She was welcomed by three brothers and a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Brown of Broadview were guests of Chief Petty Officer and Mrs. Gabriel Smith of the Detroit Detroit. "Gabi" had charge of the Navy display shown there.

The Farmington Garden Club have available a limited supply of almy car apple trees for sale at wholesale prices; to members of this subdivision. These trees are between three and four feet high and were selected for their beauty and hardiness. If you are interested, call Bob Stone, GR 4-3152.

If you heard a lot of "rooin" and "ootin'" around the Wesley Powell home on Folkstone last week, it was because of a birthday party. He had a cowboy and vov-jiri party and everyone had to check their firearms at the door. Among the "padrners" who help him celebrate were Ann, Jean and Danny Stephen and Joseph McGregor, Gordon McAskin, Bob Chesley, Cindy Bergstrom, Kathleen and Karl Jacobson, Dayway, Nancy and Diane Jessop, Cathy and Denny Fend, Philip Brown and from Clarkston were Steven and Kristin Sulkanen and Toni and Jeffrey Ochoa.

While you have the paper in your hand go to the calendar and circle the couple dates. The first date is March 10th. Get out and vote on the School Bond issue. The girls that have cars home during the day include neighbors on either side of you to run over and vote. Pile the children in the car for it will only take a few minutes and they always enjoy an outing. We have had two years of children on half day sessions and the prospect of them going all day from now on is up to you. Regardless of how you vote, get out and do it!

The second date is for those that have children in the Ten Mile School for March 17th is a P.T.A. night. Those of us who have the elements and went to the Founders Day dinner not only had a wonderful meal but heard a marvelous speaker. There is a lot of work that goes into a P.T.A. by a dedicated wife and I think each parent owes it to his child for one or the other to attend these meetings. The next time will be elected officers and a skit put on by members of the P.T.A. Let's have a good turn out.

Why not get some of your friends and neighbors together and plan on seeing the JC Minstrel Show "Fine N Dandy" on March 21 and 22? The following people from our subdivision are working hard to make this a success: Jim and Ginny Klopstein, Dor Bravton, Don Kowmenski, Bob and Pat Hill, Steve Finkelsch, Don Shuster, Bob Bergstrom, Bob Chesley, Bob Hund, and Jack Martin.
