ADMIRINGLY trying out one of the many lovely gifts to be given away at the annual Town Club Party and Fashion Show are Mrs. Edgar West, ticket chairman, and Mrs. Walter Lange, chairman of the card party. Mrs. West tries on the prize of a mink scarf while Mrs. Lange enjoys the comfort of the chair to be given, donated through the cooperation of Homestead House and the Town Club. The fashion-show will be presented this year by Zolkower's Dept. Store and will feature fashions for the very little miss, her teenage sister and mamma too. Tickets may be obtained now from any Town Club member or by calling GR. 4-5752.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Jett of Spring Arbor, Jackson, announce the birth of a son, Carl Lee, born February 27. Mrs. Jett is the former Frances Gilson of Farmington. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gilson of Haggerty Road, Farmington.

Carolyn Matteson, formerly of Farmington, is now confined to the sanatorium at Howell. A 1955 graduate of Farmington High, she would appreciate hearing from old classmates. Her address is M. S. Sanatorium, Room 225, 2 West, Howell, Michigan.

Mrs. Earl Lathrup of Longacre is now convalescing at home following recent eye surgery at Ford Hospital. She returned home last Thursday.

Mrs. G. Langford of Mayfield Avenue is convalescing at home following foot surgery at Mt. Carmel Hospital. She is a bookkeeper at the Food Fair Market here.

Young Robert Peters, son of the Richard H. Peters of Longacre, is reported recovering satisfactorily at Harper Hospital from bronchopneumonia.

Steven Anthony Kaiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kaiser of Farmington, was christened Sunday, March 2, at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Godparents were an aunt and uncle, Roger and Nancy LeMieux of Grand River Avenue.

The family gathered at the home of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo LeMieux on Grand River, for a christening party which was also attended by paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Warner of Colgate Street.

Mrs. Ervin Roggenbush of Pipk Street is now serving as Den Mother of Den 1, Pack 101, Scouts, at Shiawassee School.

Perry Brate of Grand River Avenue, who underwent surgery at Ardmore Hospital in Ferndale about two weeks ago which pneumonia developed, is reported as showing decided improvement at this time. For awhile he was on the critical list, Mrs. Brate said, but is now beginning to show signs of recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Humble and family have now purchased the E. F. Plettenberg home on Maple Avenue. Mr. Humble is an assistant principal at Farmington Senior High.

Mrs. E. V. Ayres of Wesley Drive entertained several school teachers from Walled Lake at a bridge party recently.

Mrs. Romeo LeMieux, Sr., of Grand River Avenue is convalescing at home from a broken arm. She slipped on ice on her front porch recently and broke her arm in three places.

Barbara Young of Arundel won a first prize blue ribbon in the beginners' class at the Wallace Horse Show held a week ago last Saturday. Eileen Seely of Gill Road also won a second prize in her age group at the show.

Russell Wright spent the weekend at home from his studies at Assumption High School in Windsor, Ontario, with his parents, the E. D. Wrights of Wilmarth.

Bits of News
From Section II
Jean Droz MA. 6-2832

A little black and white female cocker "My Lil' Dutch Treat," sold out of Maribeaus Kennels on Rollcrest, was entered in the Sporting Group at the Detroit All Breed Show at the State Fair, two weeks ago. Out of 270 fine dogs, she took second place.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Phillip Gagner of Rollcrest fell off a ladder while pruning trees the first week - and in March and fractured his wrists.

Mr. Albert Kiser's two brothers, Paul and Joseph, have returned home after a three weeks stay in Florida.

Mrs. H. Packard's mother, Mrs. Floyd Meacham, was operated on February 24 at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital, where she is still confined in room 165. She would enjoy hearing from friends and neighbors.

Friends of Mrs. Erma Dwyer of Allison Street, may wish to drop her cards at St. Joseph Hospital where she is confined in room 264.

Starting next week this column will be taken over by Beverly Heller, Mayfair 6-2765.

Alta Loma Sub News
Mrs. Loren M. Jenks, Jr. GR. 4-3530

Please call your news items to me, Marlene Theobald, at GR. 4-9645 for the next few weeks.

This week's sick list includes the Cochrane children who are down with chicken pox. Sheryl Gates also has German Measles.

Ronald Jaccini celebrated his 19th birthday recently. Helping to make it a happy occasion was his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maslowski and the Mecklenburgs.

The James Theobalds of Alta Loma returned recently from Delray Beach, Florida. They also traveled the Taimiami Trail to Clearwater, Florida, for a visit with old friends. They dropped in for a visit at Columbus, Ohio on their way home.

The next subdivision association meeting will be held on March 18th at the Junior High School. Let's all get out for this important meeting concerning obtaining the controls of Alta Loma 1 and 2. All residents are invited to attend. The Board held their meeting last Tuesday.

The Kielys visited Carols family in Lansing last weekend.
