PAY DIRT...

"Hitting pay dirt" is a once-in-a-blue-moon experience for the mining prospector. But you "hit pay dirt" every payday. The important thing is to keep it from slipping through your fingers. Systematically saving something every week, will give you a never-growing "stake" in the future.

Cub Pack 279 Has Program On Alaska

The theme of the March meeting of Cub Pack 279 of Clarenceville held at the Edgewood School was "Exploring Alaska" featuring a variety of handouts, slides, and a variety of games, dog sleds and igloos made from sugar cubes.

Don 8 did a skit on the purchase of Alaska by the United States from Russia under the direction of Mother, Mrs. Norma Howell. Colored slides, including pictures showing gold mining activities and the equipment used, the Alaska Highway and rivers and mountains as well as other scenic pictures taken in Alaska were shown by Robert Thompson, biology teacher at Clarenceville High School. The slides were thoroughly enjoyed by all. They were taken by him on a trip to Alaska last summer to study. Although thoroughly enjoyed was a Blue Eyed Siberian husky dog brought to the meeting by William Morgan of Garden City. A skit acting out a story about hunting seals in Alaska was shown by Don 3 under the direction of Mrs. Gwen Kerby and Mrs. Helen Nelson, Den 2 Mothers.

Awards for March were presented by Lloyd English to: Duncan Lickley — Lion Badge, Gold Arrow, 3 year pin, Denner's Badge, and Webelos Badge. Mike Barclay — Bear Badge, Silver Arrow, 2 year pin, and Webelos Badge. Gerald Harrington, Jim Sutherland, and Raymond A. Parkin — Webelos Badges. Michael Lickley — Bear Arrow, Gold Arrow, Silver Arrow, 2 year pin. Camron Nelson — Lion Badge, Gold Arrow, Silver Arrow, 2 year pin. Eddie Vandelaar — Lion Badge, Gold Arrow, Silver Arrow, 2 year pin. Dennis Theery — Denner's Badge, George Dennis — 2 year pin.

The Webelos showed the correct way to fold the American Flag for the closing ceremony. Mr. Nathan Kerby has the Webelos Den.

Cookies, milk and coffee were served by Den 3, Mrs. Laura Holmes, Den Mother, at the conclusion of the meeting.

Den 7 took a trip to the Ford Road during March to see the birdhouses on display. They were accompanied by Mr. Joe Ray and Mr. Dale Beckwith, Den fathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holmes took Den 8 to the 16th precinct of the Detroit Police Dept. They enjoyed the tour, being in jail, in the lineup and being locked in the police wagon with the siren blowing.

MRS. DAVID KRINGS GR. 4-5644

April 1st found nine members of the "small fry" clan gathered at the home of David Richert on Shadyridge to help him celebrate his 4th birthday. Arriving at 3:30 p.m. were Joan Walker, Donna Hamill, Joann Polgar, Joan and Billy Edwards, Amy and Tommy Streng, and David's brother John. The children spent the next hour playing games and looking forward to the serving of ice cream and birthday cake. Five o'clock found them returning to their homes, all agreeing birthdays are pretty wonderful affairs.

A VERY SPECIAL and wonderful birthday celebration was held in Forest Park, Illinois, last week end, for Mrs. H. C. Gaertner, mother of Mr. Walter Gaertner of Power Road. Mrs. Gaertner, who still keeps her own home and lives alone, was 85 years old on March 28th, and on that day a big family dinner was held. Celebration continued over Sunday, with open house, and altogether 63 relatives and friends had called. The Walter Gaertners motored thru on Friday, together with their daughter, Mrs. John Starn, and her two small children, Teddy and Sarah. Little one and one-half year old Sarah was visiting great-grandmother for the first time. The family returned home on Monday evening.

To Mrs. Norman Raupp, of Ivywood Drive, formerly of Shadyridge, we extend our sympathy at the passing of her father, Mr. George Schradner, on April 2nd.

FOR THE EASTER holiday, the Don Chamberlins of Dohany Drive went to Bellevue, Pennsylvania, for a visit with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Geddis. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Brian Geddis, a cousin, who have three children approximately the same age as the Chamberlins' three children. Among the places visited were the University of Pittsburgh, and the Carnegie Museum in Pittsburgh. The joy of their short holiday was somewhat dampened when they returned home to find that their home had been broken into some time Sunday evening. The home of Frank Himmeler, Dohany Drive, was broken into at the same time, with considerable loss and damage resulting.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burgess have returned home from three week vacation spent in Hollywood, Florida. While there they visited with friends in Sarasota and St. Petersburg. Mrs. Burgess' 87 year old father, who makes his home with his daughter, did not accompany them this year. Instead he spent his time with relatives and old friends in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

SUZANNE SIVY GR. 4-4784

The St. Anthony Guild of Our Lady of Sorrows Church will meet on April 10th at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Mary Larson on Fairmont.

On Friday evening, April 4th, Pam Ware entertained some of the sub-teen set with a slumber party. The girls enjoyed general conversation, dancing and listening to records and later in the evening and on into the early morning they gathered around the television to watch "Snoek Theater". Joining in the fun were Rosemary Dunlop, Leslie Dembeck, Susan Reynolds, Gail Madigan, and a Greta Gramma. The girls had the room of the house because they had no little brothers to cope with. Little Biffy Ware didn't seem to mind, however, because he was allowed to spend the night with Jimmy Ellis.

Margaret and Leo Sivy, Bev and Jim Ellis, Marge and Jim Hocksted, Charlotte and Vic Waskowski, Margaret and Ed Whelan, Pete of Virginia, Kipp, Gerdy, and Gerdy Bursick, Ray and Dee Ware, Millie and Ray Unks, and Joan Haines helped Jim Haines celebrate his 5th birthday on Saturday evening, April 5th. Jim's birthday is on Easter Sunday but the celebration was held the night before. The Haines family was up early Sunday morning to hunt for Easter baskets that the Easter Bunny had left. The Haines, dressed up in their Easter best, journeyed to church and then out to Grandpa's and Grandpa's farm for dinner.

On Sunday afternoon, March 30th, Margaret and Leo Sivy treated some of the teen age set to a party at Hayride Lodge in Rochester. The party was a "sweet sixteen" birthday party for their daughter, Suzanne, who was sixteen in January. A group of ten couples including Chuck Thompson, Jon Gringer, Wendy Turner, Nancy Lampe, John Anderson, Tom Guy, Loretta Beech, Harvey Chapman, Phyllis Schmidt, Diana Taylor, Jim Payma, Bob Unks, and date, Bob Waskowski, Diana Wingerson, Patti Wasson, Gil Bridges, and Don Spence and date, journeyed to Hayride Lodge for the day outing. The group danced and played ping pong for the afternoon and then had dinner and went on a hayride.

The Easter season was celebrated fully by the occupancy of Staman Acres.

Margaret and Ed Whelan and family entertained the Sivy's of Staman Court with breakfast after church on Easter Sunday. Mrs. Redmond of Brookdale was also present at the informal gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hogan of Belmont Drive traveled to Tillsonburg, Ontario to spend the Easter week end with Mrs. Hogan's sister.

Bev and Jim Ellis entertained the family on Easter Sunday. Jimmy and Joanne's Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, and Aunt, Uncle, and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Ozzie Lyons and son Jeff arrived at the Ellis home to exchange Easter surprises and to enjoy the dinner prepared by Bev. Earlier in the day, Jimmy and Joanne visited Grandmother's house to hunt for the treat left for them by the Easter Bunny.

Annette and Denny Bell, of Dearborn, and Bill and Dee Watson of Livonia traveled to Staman Acres. These two couples came to spend the afternoon visiting Margaret and Leo Sivy.

Leo Katterman proudly speaks of how brave he was during his recent ordeal. On Friday afternoon Lee received a cut over his eye while playing and was taken to Redford Receiving Hospital to receive two stitches.

DOGGONE CONFUSING

Two men were having a discussion as to which breed of dog was the most intelligent.

"I once owned a setter," said one, "that was really smart. I had him on the street one day when a man stopped me and questioned me about him. The dog acted very queerly — almost coming to a set — and seeking a reason for the dog's behavior. I asked the man his name."

"His name was Quaggle and the dog hesitated because he was confused by the spelling."
