Need Day Camp Scout Leaders

Girl Scouts need adult help if they are to be able to staff the four sessions of Day Camp this summer county scout officials said.

Indianwood, Southern Oakland Girl Scout Day Camp, is located west of Lake Orion with transportation available to and from camp by chartered bus.

Anyone 18 years of age or over who is interested in working with girls 7 to 17, is eligible for training. The first training session begins April 21st at Kimball High School.

Unless 220 women are recruited to meet the Girl Scout Camping standard of one adult to every eight girls, many girls, who are looking forward to this summer camping experience, will be disappointed, officials said.

Positions are open for counselors in camping and nursery units, as well as in supply houses. Registered nurses are critically needed. Nursery units to take care of younger children of counselors are also available.

Day Camp opens at approximately 8:30 a.m. and closes at 4:30 p.m. Those interested are asked to call LI 7-0616.

A different way to serve eggs... this time for dinner as recommended by our Detroit Consumer Information Agent - is to put hard-cooked eggs (allowing two for a serving) in a baking dish. Pour over them enough medium white sauce to cover. Top with buttered crumbs, and bake in a moderate oven until the crumbs are browned.

Alta Loma Sub News

Mrs. Loren M. Jenks, Jr. GR. 4-3530

The Graydon L. Karrs of Fleming Drive announce the arrival of their second son, David Alan. The Karrs also have a daughter, Carolyn Lee, who celebrated a second birthday March 16. Between vacations, bi-weekly column, and baby care at the Karrs, this item is a little late.

Among sustained Moore Drive residents are the Harris' and the Gates. The Gates' spent three weeks driving to and from Florida and enjoying Fort Lauderdale's sunshine, golf courses and night spots. The latter was with the help of visiting friends, who collaborated. The Harris' have just returned from Pompano and southward, with glowing tales of summer weather and why isn't it here.

With the painters in, Jane Howard went out. Last week she packed up and, with Jan and Mark, went to Chicago to visit family.

Neighbors report that Ellen, the small daughter of the Michael Hand's, has just returned from the hospital and an eye operation.

Robert Howard is also just out of the hospital. She is still in the up-and-down stage but should be better soon. In the midst of all this, both Ralph and Richard Howard celebrated birthdays on April 14.

Happy milestones also 16 Linda Nagy, who was recently confirmed, and to Kathy Theobald, who celebrated a third birthday April 13.

The wandering Warners of Alta Loma report gatherings here and there about the state of Michigan. They recently entertained the Norman Mills of Lansing over a weekend, spent Easter weekend at Eton Rapids with Rob's family, and journeyed Lansing - way again last weekend.

The Hendersons spent last weekend at Youngstown, Ohio. This was a business visit for Eugene and a respite for Reg.

The Carl Wheatons of Alta Loma entertained their daughter, Mrs. George Barrows, and her daughter, for several weeks while husband and father escorted students to Washington and New York. Mr. Wheaton reports scholarly activity of his own. He visited Lansing last week in connection with preparations for conferences in May in Albion with the Committee on Economics (and organization sponsored by the State department) public instruction and chairmanship by Mr. Wheaton.) The Albion meeting will also include meetings of the Consumer Credit Association, in which Mr. Wheaton will participate. He was a lecturer last week at the Northwest Lions Club on the topic "Everyday Economics."
