Yours truly and family spent April 3 through April 11 in our home town of Chicago, Illinois. Sincere thanks to Mary Towns for handling the column while I was (Continued from Page 2B) that suggestions five and six should be temperary measures to tide over the relocation of subsistence farmers in better paying occupations. That's what he means by classifying the farm problemias so-clogical as well as economic. His recommendations are, very inuch like those of the Committee for Economic propagation which doesn't lead toward a free, decontrolled, de-subsidized supply - and i-demand agriculture," Mr. Anderson concludes, "'is wrong and doom-which is good for farmers and good for the American people is a free market. market. Let's get back to it."

What can the ordinary citizen do to bring this about? Farmers and non - farmers can write their Congressmen, the President, and the Secretary of Agriculture giving their vise point and declaring their wishes. This is a responsibility of citizenship, And active citizenship had active citizenship is the safeguard of our freedom.
