Those qualified electors who are now duly registered to vote in the area in which they reside within this School District need not re-register.

TAKE NOTICE that at said election there will be submitted propositions to borrow money and issue bonds to erect new school buildings, and additions to existing buildings, to furnish the same, and to improve existing school sites.

DATED: April 17, 1958.

FRED BAILEY,
Secretary

A NEW FORD MOTOR was presented to the Farmington School District recently for use in auto mechanics classes at the high school. The motor was donated by the Ford Motor Company through its local dealership, Berling-McLaughlin. Extending a hearty "thank you" handshake to Mike Berling, second from left, is Instructor T. V. Bielecki. Wasting no time in getting a look at the engine they will have to work with in their auto mechanics training are Robert Emerson (nearest to Mr. Berling) and Jim Lapham.

Brownie Troop 323, including Wendy Chambers, Kathy Ryan, Susan Feeley, Patty O'Donoghue, Lynn Maynard, Donna Cloutier, Jackie Rickard, and JoAnn Sheehan, took a nature hike through the woods in the subdivision over the weekend. They all met at the Maynard home on Harcourt and started out, followed by the Maynard collie, "Sandy." Missed was little Susan Groff, also a member of the troop, who is in the hospital now.

Jerry and Jack Badaluch and Chipper Longener of Scout Troop No. 110, Our Lady of Sorrows, went on an early bird camping trip at Union Lake this past weekend. Peggy and Pete Badaluch entertained out of town guests for the week-end. Pete's mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Badaluch, and sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. Vulpert, and their baby from Grand Rapids were here.

Cecil and Ward Pember returned last week from a three week trip which took them to Louisiana for a few days to visit relatives. Then they flew to St. Petersburg, Florida, to visit friends and former neighbors, Helen and Bob Lutz.

Theresa McCormick of Ionia, Michigan, is a house guest of Paul and Virginia Grand. The Lloyd Hagelstetins of Crystal Springs returned recently from a ten day trip to Florida. They drove down touring through Florida, stopping at Pompano Beach and home.

Crystal and Herbert Rowe of Springbrook Drive gave a dinner party last Saturday evening for six of their friends, Perk and Helen Gardhouse, Bill and Marie Taylor, and the Harold Bowers. They spent the evening playing cards.

We would like to extend a belated welcome to our new neighbors, Irene and Don Ham and his mother, Betty, who now make their home at 25015 Westmoreland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Guardhouse returned April 10, from a trip to New York. They drove down with the Harold Bowers and spent six days looking over the town. They visited the United Nations Building and saw several shows including "The Music Man".

The St. Joseph's Wamens Circle met at Annabel Fitzpatrick's home last week. Guests included, Iona Raymo, Vera Smith, Irma Curtin, Jan Cerven, Mildred Hogg, Phyllis Orlovski and Virginia Grand.

Peggy and Jo Mogle, our former Springbrook neighbors will be missed very much. We all wish them good luck in their new home in Indianapolis.

A welcome from all of us to Don and Dorothy Stoujestyk, who have moved into Mogle's former residence.

Ed and Phyllis Orlovski had Mr. and Mrs. A. Shanker of Port Austin, Michigan as guests for the Easter holidays.

Congratulations to Little Carol Ann Francis of Springbrook Drive who celebrated her third birthday April 18. Her mother gave a dinner party for relatives.

Les Guthrie took a wrong turn and sprained his ankle the other day, but seems to be hobbling around in pretty good shape now.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Watkins and their two children who now occupy the former Ken McMillan's residence on Westmoreland Drive.

PPC David R. Crum, 19th son of Mrs. Howard Boone, 21308 Whitewing Street, Farmington, recently spent a three-day pass at the Army's recreation center at Garfield in Germany's Bavarian Alps.

Crum, a parachute rigger in the 11th Airborne Division's Quartermaster Parachute and Maintenance Company, entered the Army in September 1956 and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He was last stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C., and arrived in Europe in April 1957.

Seek Former Residents; Have Money Coming

Former Farmington residents are among approximately 60,000 missing stockholders being sought throughout the United States for large corporations in order that they may receive accumulated dividend checks, cash, surrender values and other interests due them, it was disclosed this week. Tracers Company of America located in New York is now seeking information on the whereabouts of former Farmington residents Thomas and Virginia James, D. V. and Evelyn Mitchell and Francis and Merle Wagner, all having such money coming to them. Information indicating that the stockholders are deceased would also be of value. Tracers Company officials stated. In the event that they are, the funds will be paid to their legal heirs.

Information pertaining to these stockholders or their heirs, if they are deceased, should be sent to Tracers Company of America, Division A 515 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York.

Picture of my bank
By Cindy

One day the third grade teacher at a local elementary school asked each of her students to draw a picture of the neighborhood store he or she liked best. And as you might expect, the heavy favorites turned out to be toy shops, soda bars and candy stores.

But there was one entry that surprised even the teacher. It was a carefully drawn picture of one of the National Bank of Detroit's neighborhood offices.

The artist was a nine-year-old girl named Cindy Murray. And when she was asked why she had chosen to draw our bank, she replied simply, "Because all the people there are so nice when I go in with my Mommy."

Pretty good reason, wouldn't you say?

We think Cindy's picture is one of the nicest compliments we've ever had, because it's tangible evidence of something that is very hard to put on paper: a warm and friendly spirit. Our sound management policies that provide solid strength and security, the customer convenience of 61 close-to-home offices—these specific facts are easy to express, but, friendliness is rarely so well defined.

Won't you visit us soon yourself? There's a National Bank of Detroit office in your neighborhood. Open a savings or checking account there and get to know National Bank of Detroit. And we think you'll see what Cindy means.
