MRS. DAVID KRINGS GR. 4-9644

The Farmington Hills Teenagers were entertained last Thursday evening at the home of Pat Burke on Raphael Drive. One of the most enjoyable features of the evening was a scavenger hunt.

Dora Waldie of Powers Road entertained several of her neighbors at a noon lunch on Tuesday. Guests included Betty Lane, Dolores Streng, Betsy Hamill and Fay Putnam, all diet conscientious before the lunch, forgot calories by the time the strawberry shortcake was served.

Hostesses at the Our Lady of Sorrows roast beef dinner Sunday from the Farmington Hills area were Mrs. James Duffy, Mrs. George May, Mrs. Joseph Kacin, and Mrs. Cyril Johnson. The Donald Blouins, Joseph Hoelchers, and Stanley Sempekis were among the donors as well as the diners.

Suzanne Johnson, of Shadyridge was one of the group of Girl Scouts from Troop 175, who attended the program showing of "Search for Paradise," Saturday afternoon. The troop remained downtown for lunch after the performance.

The well laid plans of mice and men go astray, thrown for a loss sometime by a mere germ. So it was for young Paul, who was supposed to be a member of a wedding party Saturday morning. On Thursday the doctor announced that the swollen glands of Paul's tonsils and no wedding party for Paul!

A tenth birthday party was celebrated by Anita Clingman of Shadyridge, Saturday afternoon with six guests attending the party. It will be a long remembered birthday for Anita. She received from her parents that day, new bedroom furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Johnson of Farmington entertained their Round Robin Club at a dinner Saturday evening. Guests included the William Camerons, Glen Bowers, Harold Nettles, Richard Grogans, and William Parks.

Dorothy and Chuck Davy, Don and Jean Winston, Jack and Irene Winston, Bob and Ann Burton, all of Glenview and Susan and Fay and Bob Tipton and Dave and Florence Krings, of Dohany Drive were present last Friday evening at the annual dinner dance at the Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church. Theme of the party this year was a Western round-up and calling for the square dancing was done by Dave Krings.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Reid of Dohany Drive entertained at Sunday dinner this past week-end honoring Mrs. Reid's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bouchard of Detroit, on her 84th birthday. Open house was held in the afternoon, with 46 relatives and friends dropping in to extend their good wishes. Out of town visitors included her son, Lawrence, from Alpena and his family, also another son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elzora Bouchard of Bad Axe, Michigan. Other guests were from Detroit, Garden City and Farmington. Mrs. Bouchard arrived several days early to be the house guest of her daughter before the party.

Named to Honor Fraternity - U.D.

Jim DeMattia, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. DeMattia of 27404 Drake, Farmington, was honored by the University of Detroit with membership in Alpha Sigma Nu, national Jesuit honorary fraternity.

He was chosen on the basis of his loyalty and service to the University, together with his high scholastic average.

DeMattia was nominated by the dean of his college and approved by the Very Rev. Celestin J. Steiner, S. J., president of the University. He is a physics and math major in the College of Arts and Science and has maintained a 3.4 average throughout his college career. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Glen Orchard Elects Officers
