

Along The Creek In Woodcreek

ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA. 6-6335

The Kinneys, particularly Alleyne, have had some busy weeks. Early in February they drove down to Memphis, Tennessee, where Watson left Alleyne to drive on to Monroe, La. to visit her parents while he flew back to business. She drove over three hundred miles to Dallas, Texas, for four days with Alleyne's brother and his wife - four days of spring weather with the narcissus in red - and in bloom. Alleyne was back in Woodcreek last a week when she and Watson flew down to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, for the christening of their godchild, Jeanie Goddard. Many here remember Treas and Al Gobout, the Kinneys' next door neighbor till two years ago when they moved to Florida. When Watson urged Alleyne to stay on for a good visit with them she did so and had a wonderful ten days of outdoor meals, even a fishing trip one day when the water was too choppy for fish to bite but they did get sunburned on their spring in Woodcreek. The Illens got back Saturday from their three weeks in Florida. The first week was spent with Mary's brother in their home at Pompano with a fine family visit. There they went to Naples where they had taken an apartment near friends of theirs from Washington, D.C., and Hartford, Conn. One of these friends had a cabin cruiser so they went cruising and fishing quite often. The weather, too, was wonderful and they could sun bathe and swim daily.

Easter was an outstanding day. Not only was the weather fine and warm - 86 degrees - but also they had a fabulous Easter dinner at the Beach Club Hotel. It was a buffet with white coated and white gloved serving men behind the tables spread of lavish foods it required another room for the many desserts.

The tables were beautifully decorated with lush semi-tropical flowers, hibiscus, orchids, etc. Bob and Mar drove down through the middle of the state to the citrus grove area. The young trees were pretty completely destroyed but in established groves there might be an area of brown trees surrounded by trees loaded with ripening fruit, apparently untouched by the frosts. No one can account for this apparent freak of nature. The vegetable crops are very poor this year but they did enjoy luscious strawberries and ripe tomatoes.

Ken Cobb celebrated his 17th birthday April 14th by playing golf all day long. He enjoys this sport passionately and is a member of the Farmington High School golf team. Elizabeth Ann Mereshak went to the Michigan Home Economics Association Convention in Grand Rapids running Thursday through Sunday. Activities included tours of Consumers Power, the Gas Company, and Grand Rapids Junior College. They had a most fascinating demonstration of the new electronic range, she reported. At one general session, held in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Pantling, the editor of better living of McCall's Magazine spoke of the Better Living Congress which it had held. At another there were three speakers. 1. Betty Taylor, Assoc. Prof. of Home Economics at Western Michigan University, spoke on recent trends in nutrition. 2. Waldo L. Scovill, asst. chemist with the Mich. Dept. of Agriculture, on food additives and Mr. Griffin of Gerbers Baby Foods had as his topic, "What Mothers Tell Gerbers." Slips were given out at each exhibition attended. At the drawing Elizabeth Ann won a pair of Gerbers baby foods! May 3rd start thinking of all the odd jobs you'd like to get done such as a car washed, your lawn mowed, storm sash taken off and screens put on, and you'd better plan to go out for you can be sure of a baby sitter. Saturday, May 3rd, at 10:30 boys and girls in the Junior Youth Group of Franklin Community Church have set aside to do odd jobs. They are raising money to fulfill their church pledge and to replenish their treasury. For your odd job call MA 6-6074. If Carter Billie isn't home Alice will gladly take your order.

Adam Jagrowski Buried Saturday

Adam Jagrowski, 28570 West Ten Mile Road, passed away April 16th in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, ten days after a fall at his residence. He was born in Poland December 12, 1876, the son of Frank and Elizabeth (Dybzianski) Jagrowski. He was united in marriage to Emilia Dolanowska in 1903, and had resided in Farmington ten and one half years.

He leaves three sons - Leon H. Jagrowski of Farmington, Carl L. Jagrowski of Grosse Pointe and Edwin A. Jagrowski of Madison Heights, Royal Oak; five grandchildren - Raymond, Duane, Gerald, Judah and Sharon; two great grandchildren and one sister - Mrs. Valentine Stempiska of Hollywood, Florida. A daughter, Elizabeth Mae Jagrowski, preceded him in death.

Mr. Jagrowski was a member of the Polish Falcons and The Polish National Alliance. A Rosary was recited at the Spencer J. Heaney Funeral Home at eight o'clock Friday evening. Mass was from Our Lady of Sorrows Church at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. Entombment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

RONALD E. MURPHY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy of 25707 10 Mile Road, Farmington, completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, California last Friday. The 11 week course includes instruction in all basic military subjects and the firing of all basic infantry weapons. He will now be assigned to a unit for further infantry training or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.

Civil Air Patrol Southfield Wins Model Plane Meet

Members of the Southfield Civil Air Patrol Squadron walked off with three of the four prizes in the Michigan Wing Civil Air Patrol model plane contest held recently at the Northland Center.

First prize winner was Ronald Meyer, Southfield. He was awarded a 29 inch speed stunt engine, donated by Kline's Hobby Shop of Farmington. Other winners were: Richard Juve, Southfield, .029 engine; Wilfred Cwikiel, Walked Lake, Model plane kit; and Edward Kolodziej, Southfield, fuel pump and socket wrench. Meyer and Juve will both represent Group 11 in the Wing contest at Grand Ledge on April 27th.

Representing Farmington in the Contest were: Lt. William Kohler, Blair Kohler and Sgt. Robert Diekey. Due to heavy wind for the engine sizes competing several planes cracked up including the Farmington entries. Officials in attendance included Major Polsgrove, Group 11 Commander, Captain Berry, Berkeley, Lt. Clemens, Southfield; Capt. Berkeley, Lt. Goltz, Commander of Farmington; and Cadet Lt. Miller of Southfield; Cadet Lt. Kohler of Farmington.

Home is a mighty test of character. What you're at home you are everywhere, whether you demonstrate it or not.

MRS. RUTH TROMBLEY GR. 4-2050

If you wanted to see five sets of shirt buttons come close to popping off, you should have been to the Pack meeting of Cub Scouts at the Farmington Senior High School, Wednesday evening, April 16th. A member of the Farmington Police Department inspected uniforms and Den 46 were the winners. Members of that Den are Teddy Klapperich, Tom Halicki, Mike Shearley, Gar Grainer and Mark Caillouette. Just as proud was Irene Klapperich of Marblehead their Den Mother.

Mrs. Doug Stowe and daughters, Annette, Elaine and Denise of Marblehead are back home after visiting her family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Weir at Ingleside, California. They visited Disneyland while there and the twins fairly burst trying to tell you about all they saw.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilmer Pike of Broadview had a family reunion at their home on Saturday afternoon

Rowe, GR 4-8434. We were asked by Mrs. Chhabala to print this message in our column: "From the Chhabala's to all our friends in the subdivision a big thank you for your generosity. Both Ed and I wish we could thank each and everyone personally, but since we can't, we're hoping this will suffice. We will always remember your interest in us and hope to see you soon."
