

Springbrook News

JILL MAYNARD, GR. 4-8551 HELEN CLOUTIER, GR. 4-2557

Lloyd Smith, director of elementary instrumental music of the Farmington Schools, held the annual spring instrumental music program at the Farmington Senior High. A number of children from Springbrook participated. Among them were: Fred Freeman, drums; Linda Taylor, saxophone; Chipper Terry, clarinet; Karyn Nicholson, trumpet; David Currier, trombone; Jack Taylor, drums; Robert Foley, cornet.

Little Cathy Kelso, daughter of Lillian and Harold Kelso of Springbrook Drive, is in Mr. Carmel Hospital with pneumonia.

Marie Walker of Westmoreland Drive flew to Philadelphia last week to be with her brother who is ill in the navy hospital.

The Farmington Garden Club will hold its annual card party May 31 at the Farmington Junior High School. Anyone wishing tickets can contact Harriet Kirchner at GR. 4-1929 or Marie Taylor at GR. 4-1728.

Heleen and Don Cloutier of Westmoreland Drive had Helen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards of Springfield, Ark., visiting for five days last week. A family party was held celebrating Mr. Richards' birthday.

Kathy Smith, daughter of Vera and Ed Smith of Springbrook Drive, celebrated her 11th birthday last week by going out to dinner with her Dad, Mother and brother one evening. Another evening a family party was held, highlighted by a visit from her Aunt Betty, who is in from Raleigh, North Carolina.

Welcome home to Ronnie Hagelstein, of Crystal Springs Court, who returned from Korea last Thursday.

Christine and Helmut Bayer had a Mother's Day dinner in honor of both mothers at their home on Westmoreland Drive last Sunday.

Slumber parties seem to be quite the rage among our pre-teens. The last one was held at the home of Betty Jane Francis last week.

Mrs. Herman Semper of Harcourt has had two little visitors with her this week. Her grandchildren, Joan and Kenneth Roberts, have been staying with her while their mother is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers and Wendy and Johnny of Westmoreland Drive spent Sunday with their daughter Linda who attends Michigan State University at East Lansing; the occasion being "parent's week end" and open house. They also visited Linda's sorority house, Pi Beta Phi, where they enjoyed a skit and sorority sing by the girls.

On April 28 Karyn Nicholson, daughter of Dolores and Al Nicholson of Springbrook Drive, participated in the monthly WCUT program at the home of the present president, Mrs. Mary Kenworthy. Karyn recited two pieces, and played two selections on the piano. At the Shawnee School last Friday Karyn played a piano solo and sang a solo. She was picked as grand marshal for a musical note-spelling contest. Eight Farmington elementary schools were represented in this contest. Karyn's mother took several little girls back to her home to celebrate her tenth birthday.

Brownie Troop 218 of Middlebelt School took a trip to the Continental Baking Company last week. Among these in our subdivision who went were Karen Nicholson, Susie Kirchner, Linda Taylor, Mary Ellen, Kathy Groff, Beverly Lloyd.

A note from the Terechusks of Springbrook Drive — "An Island in the Sun for Terechusks." Many of us long to go away and rest. This time we decided an island somewhere in Florida, where the climate is beautiful and living is easy. We decided to stay on Anna Marie Island off the coast of the City of Bradenton. We were surrounded by the Gulf of Mexico on one side and Tampa Bay on the other. The beach was very beautiful with pure white sand which looked pulverized and the sun was there to greet us everyday. Fishing was part of the taking stars. Daddy went deep sea fishing on a boat called "The Admiral." He got 60 pounds of black grouper and 12 yellow snappers. Mother and 12 year old Cheryl went fishing again with him a few days and Mother got first prize, which is quite a fish. Mother and Cheryl went to the Marysville Cave in Cave City, Kentucky.

The Guthrie family were forced to cancel their plans for a trip to Mt. Pleasant this week-end, when little Coleman came down with the measles. Dennis and Patrick Cody also had the measles this week and their sister, Nancy, is still waiting.

Attention golfers in Springbrook subdivision: We have among us one Harry Fitzpatrick, who went to Meadowbrook Golf Course last Saturday for his first game of the season. After much persuasion he was forced to admit that he made his first hole-in-one on the eighth green. This only took him 35 years, and it entitles him to play in the "hole-in-one" tournament held at Redford Golf Course once a year. Dorothy and Jack Ralston of Springbrook had a luncheon Saturday night for the former owners of their home, Irene and Ward Heath, Virginia and Paul Grand, and Anne and Robert Fitzpatrick. There were there and all had a wonderful time catching up on the news.

Diana Taylor, daughter of Eleanor and Bob Taylor of Harcourt, was elected to the Farmington diocese Development Fund, in which all the parochial school students in grades 8 through 12 in the district area participated. Diana was one of two winners in her class at Our Lady of Sorrows School. Her essay was titled, "On Carmel Hall" and her prize was a beautiful rosary.

Vincent and Harriet Kirchner had a Mother's Day gathering of 15 relatives at their home on Springbrook for the week-end. Four sons and two daughters were present.

For two consecutive years his division was the company leader in a seven-state area.

Among the guests were the Edward Robinson family, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Crim, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gratton, and Mrs. Ray Johnson. Dinner was served in the back yard.

The baby was born at the Loomis Court and Bill Court of Lamar had a pleasant surprise recently. Two families, former neighbors of theirs in Hillsdale, Michigan, "popped" in on them Mr. and Mrs. Ed and Barbara and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Morris and children of Hillsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Kenson of Loomis Ct. entertained Alan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Kenson of Detroit, for Mother's Day. It was a dual celebration as it was Nancy's eighth birthday also.

This was a busy weekend at the Robert Monahan's of Lamar. Set the twelve neighborhood children helped Mike celebrate his fourth birthday. The order of the day was just lots of noise. On Sunday they had their family party for Mother's Day and entertained with a picnic lunch outdoors.

June and Dick Lieb of Lamar are enjoying a visit from Dick's 77-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Catherine of Lakeland, Florida. She spends her winters there and her summers at Bear Lake, Mich.

Mrs. Fred Siebert of Marbledale was hostess to her monthly pinocle club on Tuesday evening. First prize was won by Joan Stowe, second by Noreen Martin and "boobie" by Audrey Jenkins.

The Daniel O'Donnell's of Lamar had Dan's family over for Mother's Day, playing host to 32 for a buffet supper. All the cousins had a "whooping" time.

Mrs. Robert Mayberger of Loomis is the latest to bring her group on Tuesday evening. First prize was won by "yours truly" and "boobie" by Peg Suthan.

Wandering Thru Woodbine

LOIS HOELSCHER GR. 4-0460

Almost everyone in the subdivision went out last Friday night to see the "Woodbine Wing Ding" a grand success. Grammer's Barn was crammed, thanks to the hard work done by Frank Reed, Edmond, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Donovan, June Ely, Julie Orlikowski, Eleanor Radke, Gwen Wrigley, and Barbara Reeder who all worked very hard in making the arrangements, selling tickets and decorating the hall. Someone made the comment that Woodbine looked as if Briggs Stadium had just let out last Friday night at about 1:30 a.m. Everybody was arriving home at about that time and many people had groups of people for luncheon and coffee after the dance. Among those entertaining afterwards were Gwen and Dave Wrigley, Julie and Ed Orlikowski, Bob and June Ely, Edmond and Dorothea and Henry Paul.

On Tuesday, May 20th, the Subdivision Improvement Association will meet. There will be discussion of the amount made on the dance and what kind of new entertainers Woodbiners would like to have. If you have any suggestions, please call and talk them over at the meeting. Another important item on the agenda will be the election of new officers. It is necessary to be eligible to vote it is necessary to be a member of Woodbine Improvement Association. Committee Chairman Gwen Wrigley is planning to have a house to house sale of the subdivision this week. You can hand your money over to Gwen when she comes to call or you can pay at the meeting.

Quite a few teenager paraders got out on the column last night by our family member, Dennis Sauerbrey's convertible was full of gorgeous gals. Dennis and Jerry Orlikowski were in the front seat and the back was graced with such beauties as Suzi Orlikowski, Diane and Cynthia Taylor of Springbrook, Sue and Jerry of Edgewood, and Laski of Farmington. Al Donovan and Lynn Palmer were on the second trailer trying to dance to bebop records during the course of the parade.

Bill and Jessie Gidday arrived home last Saturday from a two week tour of the country. The Giddays were joined on their trip by Bill's sister and her husband and the two couples went to Dallas, Texas, and from there to New Orleans for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Convention. There they toured Florida while there visited Mrs. Gidday's brother.

Virginia and Bob Smith of Wildwood Trail are moving soon. They have three children: Kathy, 6, Tommy, 4, and Michael, 3. They make their home at 31325 Marbledale.

Pastor Quits Following Row

The Rev. Denver Moore, founding pastor of the Clarencville Baptist Church, Farmington, resigned last week following a row with a dissenter group from the congregation.

His formal resignation was made from a bad in Redford Community Hospital. He was taken there after 20 days in the hallway of the Clarencville Oddfellows Hall following an argument with the dissatisfied members of his congregation.

The unaffiliated members first charged that Rev. Moore was too dictatorial. Later they charged that he was not qualified to handle church affairs. They said he could not do for the congregation what he would resign. In an argument following this, he collapsed.
