Scout Council Meeting Set Here

The fortieth anniversary dinner meeting of the Clinton Valley Boy Scout Council will be held at 8:45 p.m. tonight, Thursday, May 22, at the Farmington High School. It is announced by Council President John W. Hunt of Farmington.

Speaker for the event will be Miss Patricia Sullivan, a Cubmaster of Walkerville, Ont., who will present her color pictures of the World Jamboree. Otis N. Walton, advisor to Explorer Post 119 of the Green Lake Association, will be master-of-ceremonies. His program will include the numbers by the Automobiles, Chapter No. 1, Sweet Adeline Society, an international organization of four-part harmony, and John Kee Smith of Farmington is director of the group.

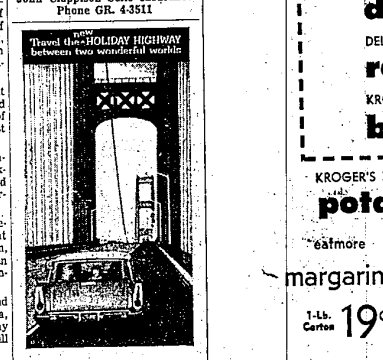

Presentation of the Silver Beaver Award, highest Council recognition for service to boyhood, will be made by Ralph S. Forman of Pontiac. Names of leaders to receive this distinction are kept secret until they are called out at the annual council meeting.

Election of officers also is scheduled. This event is the one time in the year when Scout leaders and their husbands gather for fellowship. Hunt stated, "This year's program has special significance because it is the Council's 40th birthday," he said.

Jewelry Change

Jewelry this year is taking on an old-fashioned look. Thirty and sixty-inch ropes are back, as are lariats. Three, five and eight-strand bobs in variations of sun-and-sea tones and citrus colors are also popular. Large pins are featured at the shoulder, hip or back of the collar. Earrings are mostly of the button and spray types, says Margaret Werner, retailing instructor at Michigan State University.
