

New 1958 National Colonial Home To Open for Inspection Friday

A charming new Colonial home will be shown to the public June 6, 7 and 8 in the William I addition being developed by the Saxony Building Company, Inc., near Brighton.

Through extremely practical in their application, these attractive details provide interesting contrast to the simple lines. The over-all effect is a pleasing appearance and an enduring quality.

PROFESSOR NAMES SELF OWN INSURANCE BENEFICIARY Not so long ago, a college professor said to me, "I consider myself the primary beneficiary of my own life insurance. And I'll tell you why..."

Time and again, I've seen policyholders who were dangerously ill make remarkable recoveries. And doctors themselves freely admit that a patient's peace of mind contributes as much to such recoveries...
