ington Baseball for Boys pro-gram this year. The Women's Auxiliary will have full responsibility of the concession stand under the sup-ervision of Mrs. Carl Johnston. A substantial financial contribu-liar is averaged from this protion is expected from this project.

Another regular source of revenue comes each year from the sale of Baseball for Boys decals. The Auxiliary has agreed to make this another one of its projects. Sales will start late in June and continue for approx-imately one month.

A very necessary and import-ant duty is that of maintaining ant quy is that of maintaining an up to date file of registration cards. Mrs. George Lord is con-tributing her time to the Little League part of this project and Mrs. Clayton Bartsch is hand-ling the Babe Ruth League.

"The Farmington Baseball for Boys Women's Auxiliary" was formed because of a direct necessity for such an organization. The ladies have responded in an enthusiastic and heart warming manner. We are proud to have their able assistance in making a better community. Ladieg don't usually wear bašeball caps, but if you should see one with a gold colored one perch-ed on the back of her head you can bet she is a Women's Aux-iliary Member," an official spokesman for the group com-mented. cessity for such an organization. mented.
