The first annual "Community Clean-up Campaign," sponsored by the Westbrooke Manor Association, was held Saturday, June 7.

Five community spirit, coupled with a beautiful day, were probably jointly responsible for the large turnout of approximately 150 men, women, and children. The enthusiastic workers removed between 50 and 60 tons of rubbish and trash from the unoccupied areas within the subdivision and the results of their efforts will be enjoyed by all.

Guests of the Joseph Millers on Toledo, Ohio, for the Father's Day weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and children, Mary and Bobby, of Arvonel.

On Sunday, June 8, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rorer and family came to help Gregory, who was 10 last Friday, and Griffin, 5 last Monday, celebrate their birthdays with a special dinner at the Traux home on Nottingwood.

Louis Kopinski recently returned from the hospital.

Eight ladies of the subdivision enjoyed an evening of pinocle at the home of Mrs. Charles Mino Thursday, June 3. Mrs. Milton Nuerenberg will hold the next meeting in September.

Week-end guests of the Ernest Meyers of Nottingwood were Mr. and Mrs. John Budricks and son, Jack, from Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Erich Haussmann of Bella Vista were visited last week by the Alfred Haussmanns of Lincoln Park, New Jersey.

Members of a newly formed bridge club which met first at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jaye recently are the Glen Hubers, Nelle Devines, Len Maenders of Lorikay, and the Joe Scittrous, John McDonalds, Fred Paskis and Ernest Meyers of Nottingwood.

The James Suthans were busy last week as they entertained out-of-town visitors, the Robert McConvies of Lakewood, Ohio, and on Tuesday, June 3, Mrs. Suthans hosted her

DuRAY STOMBACK Gets Advanced At Burroughs

DuRay E. Stomback, 3330 Quaker Valley, Farmington, was named general manager of Plymouth Manufacturing and Engineering, Burroughs Division, Burroughs Corporation, effective June 1, according to an announcement by Carl E. Schneider, vice president and general manager, Burroughs Division.

Stomback, former manager of engineering at Plymouth, succeeds Robert A. Nient who has resigned to accept a position outside the Corporation.

Stomback joined Burroughs in 1949 as design engineer at the firm's research center located in Paoli, Pa. In 1955, he came to the Plymouth plant to the post he now vacates.

Stomback is married and has two children.

month for the Marklawn Neighborhood Club, composed of 10 ladies, was an enjoyable dinner at Devon Cables.

Bridge clubs seem to be quite popular with many people in the subdivision and Mrs. Floyd Jaye is no exception as she entertained eight ladies of her group Tuesday evening, June 10.

Roselie Kelsch Buried Saturday

Mrs. Roselie Kelsch, 27275 Bramwell, passed away suddenly, June 4, from a heart condition.

She was born in Detroit, Michigan, June 22, 1899, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schaffran; was united in marriage to Edward F. Kelsch September 17, 1928.

Mrs. Kelsch leaves her husband, Edward F. Kelsch, two sisters and two brothers, Siella, Anne, Frank and John, all from Detroit.

She was a member of the Altar Society of Our Lady of Sorrows Church. A Burial Service was recited Friday evening at the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home.

Requiem Mass was from Our Lady of Sorrows Church at 9:00 a.m. Saturday.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Tax-Economics Bulletin says that diversion of highway user tax revenue (of which the gasoline tax is the major producer) has been steadily growing. In about 20 years this practice has drained off more than $4.5 billion, which otherwise would have been available for improvement of roads and streets.

Why should a movie star act like the girl next door? I don't think I look like the girl next door. If I did, people wouldn't go to the movies. They'd go next door. —Jayne Mansfield

Dry Milk

Nonfat dry milk can be a star performer in your kitchen. You can use it as a beverage, in soups and sauces, in breads, cakes, puddings or pies. You can use it for frostings or whip it like cream.

Using nonfat dry milk is easy on the food allowance too. If you would like a booklet of nonfat dry milk recipes, contact the Marketing Information Agent for this area. Write or call Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, 1259 West Boulevard, Pontiac.
