Hear Speakers, Take Two Tours

Guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Botsford Garden Club was Hazel P. Dunlap of the J. L. Hudson Co. Speakers Bureau who gave an enlightening talk on the topic "Artistic Table Settings for Modern Living."

She displayed several table settings which also included silver and china.

Special guests were present from the Farmington Garden Club and The Garden Study Club.

Members of the club, headed by President Emma Cartes, also attended the rose tea at Westwood Farms in Rochester for a guided tour recently.

On June 16th the club members were guests at the home of Mrs. Hazel P. Dunlap for an interesting tour of her beautiful flower gardens and home and summer house furnished with antiques and many treasures from the Far East.

The next meeting of the club will be Monday, July 14, at the home of Gladys McCague at 29155 Scotton. Mrs. Max Faulkner will give a talk on flower show procedure.

Lois Garchow, Ed Bierann Wed Recently

Lois Ellen Garchow and Lester Edward Bierann exchanged marriage vows at an evening ceremony on June 14. The scene of the wedding was St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran Church, Farmington. Officiating was Reverend Walter Rutkowski.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Elmer Garchow and the late Mr. Garchow, was given in marriage by her uncle, Edgar Garchow. She carried a white satin Bible adorned with orchids and stephanotis to complement her gown of tulle over roses. Her headpiece was a double crown of pearls and sequins.

Attending the bride were her sister, Mrs. Harold Woodcock, as matron of honor, and three cousins — Miss Cynthia White, Mrs. Erwin Schneider, and Miss Joyce Ash. All wore gowns of pink and carried baskets of pink roses. Flower girls, Lois and Pamela Woodcock, wore dresses of identical gowns of white crystal and carried nosegays of pink roses. The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bierann of Gibson, Minnesota, was attended by his brother, Leonard, as best man. Ushers were Frederick Panning, Erwin Schneider, and Harold Woodcock.

About 200 guests were present at the reception held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

Following a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the bride is residing with her mother in Farmington while the groom completes his service obligation with the U. S. Army. A former member of the Clarencerville school system faculty, the groom has recently received re-assignment orders from his previous location at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, to the Far East Command.

Named Region U.F. Chairman

Appointment of Mrs. Palmer Bundy, 8621 Eaton Road, Davisburg, as chairman for the United Foundation's Torch Drive volunteer organization in Farmington and 11 other Oakland County townships was announced last week.

The appointment was made by Mrs. Victor North of Royal Oak, chairman for the county's three regions in the annual campaign to support 195 health and welfare agencies serving the metropolitan Detroit area. The campaign dates are October 14 through November 6.

Mrs. Bundy served as a Torch Drive regional chairman for townships last year, and is a member of the Michigan United Fund trustees committee. She is active in the Catholic Social Services of Oakland County, American Cancer Society Southeastern Michigan Division, and the American Red Cross Oakland County chapter.

In her new position as a regional chairman, Mrs. Bundy will name and coordinate the work of chairmen representing each division in her region. The divisions are Addison, Commerce, Farmington, Groveland, Holly, Lyon, Novi, Rose and Springfield Townships, and the Huron Valley Townships of Highland, Macomb and White Lake. The chairmen will set up the campaign organizations within their districts.

Exchange Nuptial Vows At Lady of Sorrows

At ceremonies Saturday morning, June 21, at 11 a.m. at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, marriage vows were exchanged by Barbara Helen Donovan and Terence K. Kilbride.

The former Miss Donovan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Donovan of 33477 Quaker Valley Road. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Kilbride of 887 Anita Ave., Grosse Pointe Woods.

The Nuptial Mass was said by Rev. Thomas Beahan, pastor.

The bride was lovely in a gown of silk organza with imported Swiss applique, featuring a full skirt ending in a chapel train. A cap of matching applique held an illusion veil secure. She carried a bouquet of white and sweetheart roses with stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Ann Donovan. Bridesmaids were Miss Cynthia Wheeler, Miss Stephanie Millenbach and Mrs. Michael Dolan. They were white organza over pink taffeta gowns and carried bouquets of deep red sweetheart roses.

Serving as best man was Thomas Kilbride. Ushers were Clarence Donovan, Jr., Robert Mahoney and Daniel Stocker.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a beige silk dress and the bridegroom's mother a willow green lace dress.

A reception was held at the Meadowbrook Country Club immediately following the ceremony.

Wed By Candlelight Friday In Birmingham

At a candlelight ceremony Friday, June 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the Jasper Episcopal Church in Birmingham, which approximately 200 attended, nuptial vows were exchanged by Carol Jean Fisk of Birmingham and John Henderson Brown of Farmington.

The former Miss Fisk is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Fisk of 6400 Birmingham. She is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Brown of 22080 Nine Mile Road.

The bride was lovely in a taffeta, floor length gown featuring a chapel train, long sleeves and a lace neckline trimmed with deep pearls. A finger veil was held in place by a pearl tiara headpiece. She carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies and stephanotis.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Donald O'Keefe of Detroit. Bridesmaids were Dianne Gilmore of College Corner, Ohio, Dorothy Jones of Birmingham and Jane Kneucker of Detroit. They wore gowns of pale green taffeta covered with white organza and carried bouquets of daisies.

Thomas J. Mathes of Wayne, Michigan, was best man. Serving as ushers were Donald O'Keefe of Detroit, Donald Stokes of Millard, Glen Warner of Farmington and George Stakes of Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fisk chose a pale blue linen gown with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white print ensemble. Both wore white orchids.

Immediately following the church service a reception was held at Devon Gables.

For a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the bride chose a gray tulle jacket dress with white accessories. The newlyweds will make their home in Richmond, Kentucky.

The bride is a June graduate of Miami University and affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. The bridegroom, who served four years with the U.S. Air Force.

Franklin Knolls Women's Club Meets Tonight

The Franklin Knolls Women's Club is having a dinner-dance at Guffin's House of Beef tonight, Thursday, July 3.

The evening will begin with dinner at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by dancing to Lyle Carlyle's orchestra.

At a recent meeting, election of officers was held. The officers elected were: June Lynch, president; Charlotte Rubin, first vice president; Marjorie Sheets, second vice president; Elaine Tully, treasurer; Yvette White, corresponding secretary, and Mary Brown, recording secretary.

Sally Schreiber and Claudene Kessler are reviewing the proposed constitution for the organization and Dorothy Lauer is preparing a set of by-laws.

Bill Varhol, eldest son of the John Varhols of Shadydale Ave., who broke his arm while playing ball two months ago, has now had the cast removed.

To do as you would be done by, is the plain, sure, and undisputed rule of morality and justice. —Lord Chesterfield
