

Quit Claim Deeds Needed for Sales

A series of quit claim deeds will be needed to straighten out property lines on land north of 9 Mile between Gill Road and Farmington Road, and the city manager was authorized to sign these Monday night.

On the original sale to Nicolay-Dancey for the potato chip warehouse, a surveyor ran the east boundary line crooked. The same error was followed on the Federal Industries tract, and now it is being rectified so sale of the next parcel of land can be correct.

American Bakeries, which purchased this tract from the city, wants to get started building there as soon as possible.

Along The Creek In Woodcreek ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA. 6-6335

Friday, June 27, the Langs went up to Frankfort for a week end of golf, and rest. There were eight in the party at their friend, Bill Terry's cottage. It was a beautiful week end, the best weather to date, too cold to swim but fine for golf.

Allison Dorman was taken down to Ford Hospital Saturday morning to see her pain was not from her appendix. It was not, but she says Beulah Kelly there also. Beulah has erythema and will be laid up at home for a while, until she can get to her feet.

Mary Ellen has left to take up his new job in Florida. That triggered off some get-togethers and a group in at the Weightmen Saturday night and a brunch at the Itens Sunday morning. All in Wood Creek, especially their old friends, are going to miss them very much. Mary plans to stay on here 'til their lovely home is sold.

The women's Association meeting was held Tuesday, July 1, at Florence Richards's. Florence Plevins and Helen Weightman were co-hostesses. It was one of our few beautiful days so dessert was served out of doors.

We are also going to lose the La Faves. They have sold their home on Salem Road and are going back to their cottage on Whitmore Lake.

The Thuronses, Art's father and the two granddaughters, Linda and Katy, went up the third in all the rain to Black River Ranch at Onaway. But in spite of the weather they did have a good time. When they got back Monday night they found a big tree had been blown down in the bad storm we had Friday night.

Marty McGuire celebrated his 15th birthday Monday by working all day on the boat to have it ready for the race. Of course his mother had a wonderful birthday dinner for him when he got home. And seven is a lucky number so, since Marty was a seven month baby, born the se-

Bigger Gas Tanks

Underground storage tanks for gasoline can now be much larger in Farmington. The city council amended the ordinance Monday so tanks up to 30,000 gallons can be buried. The safety factor is increased, because tanks require thicker walls, and mean fewer gas deliveries.

Wants 'Cons' as Well Gentlemen:

Last Tuesday evening it was my pleasure to attend a meeting sponsored by the committee for incorporating Farmington Woods. The gentlemen on the panel were obviously sincere, dedicated and well informed men. They made a most able presentation of the reasons for such an incorporation, and I am certainly glad I attended.

After the meeting three or four, who for want of a better phrase, I would call "prominent citizens", and I talked over what we had heard. We wondered if there were in existence a group of some kind that is going to furnish information to us, the residents of the area, pointing out the less desirable aspects, if any, of an incorporation. We agreed that I was to write this letter to inquire. If there is such a group, we would appreciate hearing from them. If there isn't, then we would appreciate hearing from some representative residents who would be interested in organizing such a committee.

Please let me stress, we are not interested in people who have already made up their minds, pro or con, but rather in people who would help us ascertain certain facts with an open mind. Admittedly, we will lean toward "cons" since the "pros" is already in very capable hands. Anyone interested is asked to call DI 1-2011 and leave his name, address and phone number for possible future contact in the event the committee is formed.

Sincerely,
George Steinberger
