Performs at Big Shrine Meet Curt C. Kofahl of Eight Mile Road returned Saturday from Chicago as one of 20 selected to represent the Chanters of Moslem Temple of Detroit at their convention there beginning on July 13th. Moslem Temple again received great ovations for the precision and ability shown by their 18-plate patrol and their colorful Oriental band. The Chanters Assn. was also well received at a concert at Medina Temple in which over 1,000 voices participated. Kofahl was one of four chanters from Moslem Temple who took part in the colorful chorus of 80 and pageant at the installation of the new Imperial Potentate, George Stringfellow. A special train took the Detroit delegation to and from the convention and they were quartered at the fashionable Edgewater Beach Hotel. The annual Grand Lakes Convention will be held in Indianapolis in September of this year. Detroit will be host in 1959. Kofahl is first vice-president of the Greater Farmington Shrine Club.

The keel for the world's first nuclear-powered passenger-carrier ship, the NS Savannah, was laid in May. She is scheduled in honor of the USS Sigsbee, the first ship to cross the Atlantic under steam, in a voyage that started May 22, 1919.

Wendy Turner recently spent two weeks in Indiana visiting a girl friend. They spent some of the time on a farm on the Ohio River. Patty Bragg spent a week in Sandusky, Ohio, recently visiting a friend, Paula Truman. While Patty was in Ohio her mother entertained Hilda Beverick at the Bragg home on Rocky Crest.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Marquis and family spent the past week with Mrs. Marquis's sister, Joyce Thoman. The following week the Thomasons entertained Joyce's other sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, and family. Both families traveled from Indianapolis to visit the Thomasons. Among the group of vacationers were Kay and Stan Wilkins, Leo Sivy, and Jack Burke. The Wilkins spent most of their vacation around the house, and Stan played quite a bit of golf. Leo Sivy, during his last few days off, stuck close to the house in lawn grass, etc. Jack Burke spent his week's vacation taking the family around town and then doing things around the house. Debbie Waskowski was the happiest little girl in Staman Acres on her fourth birthday. Debbie was the guest of honor at a party hosted by her parents.
