MRS. CHARLES O'NEIL, JR.

Married at Tecumseh Meth. Church Saturday

Nuptial vows were exchanged Saturday evening, August 23, at the Tecumseh Methodist Church by Mary Elizabeth Howe of Farmington and Charles B. O'Neill, Jr. of Tecumseh.

The former Miss Howe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howe of 22800 Wautch. O'Neill is the son of Mrs. Charles B. O'Neill of Tecumseh.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. James D. Nixon before an altar adorned with white gladiolus, mums, pomponas and delphiniums. The traditional seven-branch candleabra and palms formed a beautiful setting at the altar for the impressive candlelight service. Miscellaneous organ selections were played with "The Lord's Prayer" being sung as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride wore a white gown of tulle with fitted bodice, designed with a scooped neckline and embellished with lavender French points. A fingerling of French illusion was attached to a Swedish tulle of pearls. The bride carried a crescent arrangement of white butterflies, roses, stephanotis and white snowdrift pomponas with nylon tufts and narrow sail streamers tied with lover's knots.

Maid of honor was Virginia Hiser of Dundee, Michigan. Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Bunnett, Miss Sharon Getman, Miss Annette Langier. They wore aqua ballerina length tulle gowns designed with fitted bodices of small pin tucks and lace necklines. Their circular skirts were accented by large butterfly bows and their shoes and sweetheart picture hats matched the gowns. Miss Hiser carried a rattan parasol filled with yellow sweetheart roses and centered with Fuji mums in a crescent. Bridesmaids carried parasols.

Meals Ought to Be Pleasant
A little planning and a pleasant atmosphere can go a long way toward making mealtimes with young children a satisfying time, according to Lennah Backus, extension specialist in parent education and child development at Michigan State University.

Try to put aside your troubles at mealtimes. Mother and dad, in a relaxed and expectant frame of mind, create a pleasant mealtime. In this way food is more apt to be appetizing and enjoyable to all. Help young children sense this pleasant feeling.

Take into account what children are doing when you call them to the table. If they're in the middle of an interesting activity, a few minutes warning gives them time to finish what they're doing and get ready to eat.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES WILLIAMS

Wed at First Methodist Recently

At a candlelight ceremony July 26 Peggy Ann Allemus became the bride of James E. Williams in the First Methodist Church of Farmington.

Take Part in CAP Search Rescue Mission

August 23rd at 6:45 a.m. Farmington group left Dunkel's High in Group and Squadron mobile units for Annual Michigan Wing practice search and rescue mission.

Immediately upon their arrival, the cadets and sergeants engaged in the base operations along with members from many other sections of the state. The senior attendances exceeded 210 and the cadets attending numbered 370.

The SARCAP is an exercise which enables the Air Force to evaluate the Civil Air Patrol and this year the Michigan Wing was congratulated by Colonel Robie, USAF.

On September 2nd the Civil Air Patrol officers from Group 11 and the Farmington Squadron will attend a dinner at 6:30 p.m. at the Hotel Plymouth in Farmington at Himmelspach's Dining Room. Group 11 radio and rescue equipment will be on display.

Girl Scouts to Plan for Fall

The first fall meeting of the board of directors of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Inc. will take place at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 4, in a new location, an auditorium in the Consumers Power Co., 303 Williams (corner of 3rd), Royal Oak, according to Mrs. Paul F. Carey, president.

Agenda items include approval of the board on the statement of agreement between Southern Oakland Girl Scouts and the United Kiwanis Club of Troy; the United Foundation's Torch Drive campaign and the help report from the trainers who attended summer courses at National Girl Scout Training School, Camp Edith Macy, New York, and the award of the red rosetta pin to Mrs. James B. Roberts who was chosen from Southern Oakland Girl Scouts volunteers workers for recognition by United Community Services.

Be careful what you may start when you try to stop something.

Being Fed at Pre-Nuptial Social Affairs

Allice Lancaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lancaster of Farmington, is being honored at many social festivities prior to her marriage to David Howell of Northville on September 6.

Miss Linda Chambers and Miss Judy Hoofnagle gave a miscellaneous shower, inviting many of Allice's high school chums.

Mr. Robert Riccardi and Mrs. Amelia Uberti of Detroit hosted a dinner party and shower. Mrs. Philip Henaull and daughter, Judy, gave a kitchen shower and Mrs. George Chesley of Birmingham has a luncheon-shower scheduled.

The bride and groom will be married at the Farmington Inn, Farmington, Michigan, on September 6 at 10:30 a.m. The bride's maid of honor will be Mrs. Herbert Hart of Grosse Pointe and the bridesmaid will be Mrs. J. S. Williams of Farmington.
