Mrs. David R. Howell

Miss Alice Lancaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Lancaster of Farmington, and David Ross Howell, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, September 6. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Howell of Northville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Candelabra, chrysanthemums and gladioli graced the First Methodist Church of Farmington, where the Rev. Richard Markham performed the 1:30 p.m. ceremony.

Alice chose a waist length gown of embroidered nylon over satin, designed with a two-tiered, bouffant skirt. A satin bow accented the fitted waistline. Her waist-length veil of English lace fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

The bride's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Marilyn Davis, Shirley Brown, Gayle Hart and Julie Henault. All were in sapphire blue tulle-trimmed gowns with feather hats and shoes in matching color. Their bouquets were char- truse Fuji chrysanthemums.

The groom's brother, Don Howell, was best man. Ushers seating the guests were David Goss, Flint, Lee Goss, Detroit; Robert Blackwell, Kalamazoo; Glyn R. Brown, Jr., East Lansing; and Philip Henault and Charles Urquhart of Farmington.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lancaster chose a royal blue silk faille gown with blue accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Leo Goss, wore a costume suit of royal blue wool and her flowers were orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 250 guests was held in the gardens of Lancaster, the Lancaster home in Farmington.

This should make all local teenagers green with envy. Sheryl Gates and her friend, Joy Sadler, were guests of Marty McNeely, disc jockey, at the State Fair Coliseum Show. They met Rickey Nelson before show time when pictures were taken, talk exchanged and autographs and addresses obtained. Needless to say, these two young ladies are still up in the clouds.

The Seng family of Alta Loma has been on the move again. Martin and his friend Dave Catherman returned recently from a camping trip to the Smokey Mountains and climbed its highest peak, "Kingman," elevation 5,600 feet. Connie returned from Camp Westminister at Higgins Lake and Marie reports that a fire in the summer was a six-hour canoe trip for the whole family down the AuSable River and a trip across the Mackinac Bridge.

Enjoying a change from the big city are Mrs. Russ Williams' son's parents, here from New York City. They have been visiting the Williams on Cass Avenue for the past several weeks.

Several persons have requested that residents please put their trash cans in their garages after pickups. Trash cans are supposed to be kept in garages at all times.
