Twenty couples and Stan Thorne were in attendance at the subdivision's Harvest Ball at Guffin's last Friday evening where they enjoyed dinner and dancing. The hostess members of the group returned to the Foster's later in the evening for coffee.
A Cub Scout service project will be conducted this Friday starting at 4:30 p.m. The boys will be going door-to-door seeking donations for the United Nations Children Fund. The donations they seek will be for needy children the world over. Being undertaken by the Cubs on the eve of Halloween, the Cubs will really mean it when they come to your door saying "Help the poor."
RESIDENTS of the subdivision are asked to have their porch-lights and spot-lights on when the witches and goblins go to the door Friday night. Residents are asked to chaperone their youngsters on their calls. It has been reported that the entrances to the subdivision will be watched and the roads pat-

Janice Ellis entertained her friends at an afternoon luncheon in honor of her second birthday. The girls, Susan Cleveland, Kristi Reynolds, and Lynn Doman, enjoyed a luncheon served by Mrs. Ellis and later enjoyed playing with Janice's birthday toys, hula hoops, and skip rope. The mothers were also invited to the luncheon.
The next day, Sunday afternoon, Janice's grandparents, and aunts and uncles helped her celebrate a family dinner held at the Ellis home on Rocky Crest Drive.
THERE ISN'T much change in the bowling scores this week. The four way tie for first place was broken by the team of Tullips, consisting of The Sivs and The Schupolis. The men's high score this week was bowled by Stan Wilkins with 221 and 216, and Ray Sivy with 211. The women's high scores were bowled by Winnie Jenkins with 167 and Norma Larson with 163 and 158.
The Stan Wilkins of Staman Circle planned one too many parties last Saturday evening. They attended a wedding in the early evening and then attended a party with some old friends. They then attempted to attend the Hard Times party given by Gertie and Gerry Bursick but they didn't quite make it.
The Hard Times party given by the Waskowskis and the Bursicks was attended by Virginia Klapp, Jean and Jim Haines, Bert and Jim Ellis, Ray and Millie Unks, Ray and Dee Ware, Pat and Jack Burke, Joanne and Bill Smith, Margaret and Lou Sivy, Ray and Bea Sixty, Martha and Bob Bacon. The group enjoyed a luncheon, served by Charlotte and Gertie, dancing and games with prizes.
THE LAST Our Lady of Sorrows After Society meeting was held at the home of Bea Sixty. Those from the St. Anthony Circle who attended the meeting were Gertie Bursick, Norma Larson, Mel Davies, Sharon Keller, Joanne Smith, Eileen Turner, Mary Callowate, Millie Unks, Charlotte Waskowski, Louise Sidloski, Coleen Chadwick, Pat Burke and Judy Hanby. The women discussed the coming Christmas Fair to be held at the church.
Barb and Donald Katterman spent last Saturday at the University of Michigan. They traveled to Ann Arbor for the Homecoming game as they are both alumni of Michigan.
