Set Traffic Safety Sunday Governor G. Mennen Williams has proclaimed Sunday, November 16, as Traffic Safety Sunday at the request of an inter-faith committee of prominent Catholic, Protestant and Jewish clergymen. This is sponsored by an inter-faith committee of Catholic, Jewish and Protestant members and is a special Sunday set aside during the season of Thanksgiving for citizens to take inventory of their moral responsibilities as safe and courteous drivers on our highways. The Governor said, "Unfortunately, during the holiday season, we may expect our most serious and heartbreaking losses of the year - those caused by preventable traffic accidents. Traffic Safety Sunday has the cooperation of the State Safety Commission, Michigan Citizens Highway Safety Action Committee, and the State Safety Council. Gerald W. Shipman, Executive Secretary of the State Safety Commission, said this is the fifth year the Traffic Safety Sunday program has been carried out state-wide in Michigan. Although our heart toll from traffic accidents has been reduced in the last two years, it is a known fact that the last three months of the year are the most dangerous. The highest toll in that order. We hope that Traffic Safety Sunday intended to be only a one-day program," Shipman said, "but that the citizens of Michigan will more firmly sense their responsibility as safe drivers every day of the year."
