First Methodist 'Holiday Mart' Arrangements Now Completed

Many new items will be seen at the Holiday Mart of the First Methodist Church, according to Mrs. Leonard Stid, general chairman. It will be held a week from this Thursday, Dec. 4, starting at 10 a.m. The baked goods booth will have its usual pies, cakes, etc., but will also have a pantry shelf stocked with home-made jams, jellies, fruit, pickles, yeast and dressings. Good Georgia fruit-cake, talked about so much in past years, will be available. Sausy clown dolls, made under the direction of Mrs. James Pender, will be peeping at you from among the many other toys. Lovely girl items made out of felt, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Bailey, will be on sale. The candles are once again unusual and beautiful. They have been decorated under the direction of Mrs. C. Overton and Mrs. M. Bradley. Mrs. E. Boling has made many attractive doll beds all equipped with bedding to make many little girls happy. They are in hues of pink, blue and green. Many hours of work have gone into making the wash rug, more attractive than ever this year. Mrs. D. Turner, chairman, promises rugs in red, blue, green, pink, orchid and tan, besides light and dark shades of the good standard-hat and miss design. There will be aprons, aprons and more aprons, from the new design to the large utility that have been made under the direction of Mrs. C. Osgan and her Tuesday Sisters. Dainty gaudies and nets, serviceable coppers and many prints of unusual pattern and design will all be there for you to make a choice from. Many other items will be for sale such as needlework, which includes lovely pillow cases, Christmas stockings, and quiltings, toys and plants. Mrs. Pockets will be roving around to delight the children with her pockets filled with many surprises for 5c and 10c. Dinner will be served from 12:30 to 7:30 p.m. Tickets are available at the church office, GR. 4-5737, or by calling the ticket chairman, Mrs. E. Cooley, GR. 4-3247. (Reservations must be made in advance. Swiss steak will be the main dish with home-made apple pie for dessert. Mrs. Walter Conley will make the tables attractive with Mrs. William Conley will chair the dinner and Mrs. Ross Patterson will have charge of the dining room. In addition to those named above, Mrs. Stid has been assisted by the President of the Women's Society, Mrs. James Jones and the following Circle Circle: Mrs. Myron Coon, Mrs. William Carpenter, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. David Edwards, Mrs. Richard Nichols and Mrs. Robert Bailey. A FAREWELL party in honor of Helen and Ed Jara was given last Saturday night at Northwestern. Approximately 40 friends were on hand to wish the Jaras good luck and happiness. A buffet lunch climaxed an evening of dancing, bowling and singing tunes played by Dave Karbel at the piano. The Jaras were presented with a table lamp and a brass tea cart. They will be leaving their home on Green Willow Road at 1018, near Palatine, Illinois about January 1st. Mary and Ivan Towns visited former Kendallwoods, Mary and John Sly, in Dayton, Ohio last November 19th and 20th. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Durbin of Baintree had Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tanner, from Gray, Georgia, as house guests for a week recently. The Durbins showed their guests the highlights of Farmington and Detroit. One evening they enjoyed going to The Rooster Tail and dancing at the Dearborn Inn. They wound up the week attending the Lions vs. 49ers football game. Middlebelt - Shiawassee Girl Scout News

The November meeting of the Middlebelt - Shiawassee Girl Scout Neighborhood Association was held at the home of Gen. Chambers of Westmoreland Dr. There were 26 members present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Chairman Mrs. Piliha reported that the Girl Scout booth at Town Day netted $40.64. The new addition to the cookie sale to be held in March is a peanut butter cookie. A discussion of Safety Wise rules for Scouts and Brownies was held. Girls working on badges have several possibilities of assistance and would be interested in the display to which they are welcome at Boys Republic.

During the second or third week in December the four Scout troops of this area will join for a song fest and an evening outing. Using uniform chairman, Mrs. Lois Schlack, reports she has 50 uniforms on hand and is in need of a few more. However, there is a great demand for Girl Scout uniforms and she will be happy to receive and place any that are available. Contact Mrs. Schlack at GR. 4-8052. Following the general meeting and during the refreshments, Mrs. Ruth Nobe, of the Middlebelt Troop, presented a display of craft and Christmas decorations. BROWNIE TROOP 218 is working on a service project house in Palatine, Illinois about January 1st. They are going to take these to the sick children at Beaumont Hospital. These girls recently spent a Saturday at November 19th and 20th. Christian Science

The imperative need for spiritual alertness as our defense from evil will be stressed in Christian Science services Sunday. Bible readings in the Lesson Sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alchemy, Merism and Hypnotism, Demonic" will include the following from the Bible: "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be read.

Honored on 10th Year at St. Paul's Luth.

November 23 marked the date set to celebrate the anniversary of Pastor Walter Rutkowski's tenth year of service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Farmington. Pastor Fred Rutkowski, brother of Pastor Walter Rutkowski, officiated at a worship service to commemorate this occasion. Immediately after the service, a program was held in the special hall, following the pattern of the famous "This Is Your Life" program. Eight of the pastor's sisters from out-state (Michigan) were present, each relating an event in the pastor's life.

The first child Pastor Rutkowski baptised at St. Paul's was present and also the first couple the pastor married. The oldest daughter of Pastor Rutkowski, Junior student at Valparaiso University in Indiana, was unable to attend the celebration so she sent a tape recorded message to be heard during the program.

Mrs. W. Rutkowski was presented a "charm" bracelet, featuring the carby "charms" and Karen, youngest daughter, attending the Detroit Lutheran High School, was presented a large stuffed dog to ease the want in her heart for a real dog. The climax of the program was the presentation of a 21-inch console T.V. to the pastor and his family from the congregation.

Cookies and punch were served to the guests. Later a lunch was served to the pastor and his family for this anniversary celebration. The entire program was tape recorded and parts of this were re-played for the enjoyment of the family.
