Approximately 35 ladies including some Girl Scouts were present at Farmington Children's Hospital December 1 when a tour was taken in connection with the volunteer program for the hospital being conducted through the Kendallwood Women's Club. Already 1000 patients have been helped by driving patients to and from dental appointments, and in other ways greatly needed and appreciated. Clubs of groups of Kendallwood Association Treasurer Jack Shy, 2854 Quail Hollow Rd., GR. 4-808.

The Kendallwood 1 Thursday was purchased six gas lamps illuminating the entrance markers, two at each of the three sub-division entrances. Everyone is looking forward to the installation of the new additions.

A REMINDER is given to Kendallwood 1 residents that membership dues to yet paid their 1958 dues. As soon as possible, contact Kendallwood Association Treasurer Jack Shy, 2854 Quail Hollow Rd., GR. 4-808.

The Kendallwood Farms Home covers Club December meeting was held at Dorothy Kraft's, 32410 Old Forge Lane, Thursday evening, December 10 (note, this meeting is on Thursday rather than the usual fourth Tuesday). All Kendallwood II and Kendallwood III Ladies are cordially invited to attend. A Christmas party, caroling, and a site gift exchange are being planned.

Welcome to our new Kendallwood III neighbors — Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Waugh who recently moved their new home on Farmville from Garden City. The Waugh's son Michael is in the Army, stationed in Germany. Mike's date, "Mrs. Mildred Waugh," is living here with the Waugh's who are looking forward to talking to their son overseas via telephone this month.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Trubey's new baby, a girl, is reported doing well after her return home from Brantwood, Michigan, where she was born on December 23.

David Smith of Thorny Branch Rd. was thrilled with being included in a hunting trip to Trantown City with his dad recently.

A series of cocktail parties were given at Kendallwood homes last month. Among the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rath, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Nicolay, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Palfini and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Benden of Ridgebrook announce the arrival of their third baby girl, Janice Marie, on November 28. Janice weighed seven pounds, five ounces at birth. The Benden's other daughters are Debbi, three years old and Karen, one year old.

Various plans for entertaining, vacations and house guests over the Thanksgiving week-end had the Kendallwood subdivisions buzzing with activity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Tovins and children went to Springfield for Ivan's families reunion dinner Thanksgiving Day.

The Loves, Bob, Margaret and Pam, welcomed Margaret's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts from Washington D. C. at their home on Thorny Brae Thanksgiving Day and enjoyed a four day visit.

Joe, Mary and Nancy Rozman spent Thanksgiving week-end at Kent Lake with Mrs. Rozman's sister and family.

The Sheppards drove to Youngstown, Ohio for Thanksgiving.

Clark's are expecting a visit from their daughter Barbara and husband, Andrew Atkins, from Darmstadt, Germany, Christmas.

Sally and Dick Decker and children returned home on Hearststone Tuesday night December 2, after an enjoyable holiday in Pittsburg with Dick's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Harry R. Decker.

Yours truly and family vacationed six days in our home town of Chicago, Illinois spending Thanksgiving at my sister's home in Glenview when a delightful celebration took place as guests of former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leseberg, in Palatine, Illinois Thanksgiving week-end.

What a small world! To my surprise, I ran into my next door neighbor, Margie Bissell, while there, on a shopping trip at a Marshall Field's suburban store. The Bissells were home and Mrs. Ed Leseberg, in Palatine, Illinois Thanksgiving week-end.

Editor B. J. Dahl, The Chevrolet, Wash., Independent — If there ever was any remote doubt that all thinking in Russia is controlled by the Communist bosses, the incident of refusing to allow Soviet writer Boris Pasternak to accept the Nobel prize for literature should dispel such doubts completely. If the communist system is so noble and without fault or blemish, a book which is critical could have no effect on changing people's minds. If they are actually degenerating a better way of life, what is there to worry about? Shop in Friendly Farmington.
