Legion Gift
Breakfast
Slated Dec. 14
The Legion Annual Christmas Gift Breakfast will be held Sunday, Dec. 14, at Groves-Walker Post 346, American Legion.
Commander Donald Watson disposed this week.
Pancakes and sausage with milk or coffee will be served from 7 to 11 a.m.
Christmas gifts costing approximately $3 will be accepted as donations. The gifts of games, cigarettes, wearing apparel, toilet articles or writing paper received will be wrapped by the Ladies Auxiliary Unit and taken by Post and Unit members to disabled veterans at the Maybury Grand Sanitorium, Legion has the practice for many years, on December 21.
About 140 veterans will receive gifts through the combined efforts of Farmington, Bedford Township, Northville and Plymouth Legionaires.
Cleo Violet of Groves-Walker Post is in charge of arrangements and is hopeful for a record breaking turnout for this very worthy project.

Several Recent FHS Graduates Now Employed as Teachers

Fifteen alumni from the graduating class of 1954 have gone into the teaching profession, according to a study made by the FHS Journalism department.

Three alumni, Miss Pleron Mr. Tyler, Mr. Barrons, are teaching at FHS in the field of English and history, while others are teaching in other Farmington schools or in neighboring school systems.

Class of '51
James Bates teaches and coaches in the Jackson Public School System. He is a graduate of the U. of M.

Rita Pleron teaches English at Farmington Senior High. She graduated from the U. of M. in 1955.

Vincent Stock is teaching social studies at Our Lady of Sorrows. Vincent is a graduate from the U. of M.

Barb Howell is a Librarian in a Pontiac high school. She is now married and her name is now Collinsworth.

Class of '52
Nancy Grothman is at the Eagle School, in the Farmington system, teaching sight-singing. She attended Wayne.

Class of '53
Dorothy Cant teaches speech correction in the Southfield Schools. She travels from school to school. Dorothy is a graduate of the U. of M.

Richard Tyler is now teaching American history at Farmington Senior High. He is a graduate of Eastern Michigan College.

Dennis Gaudart is teaching sixth grade at Dearborn Township School. Dennis is a graduate of the U. of M.

Class of '54
Among the evening's program are these special features: Singing Christmas Tree made up of the Girls' Glee Club; "March of the Three Kings" by the boys' chorus and a narration of the Christmas Story by Michele Cook.

The art and home economics classes are assisting with art work and costumes.

Will Sing for State Kiwanis

Farmington's Falcon-aires have been invited to sing at the Michigan Kiwanis Convention in Jackson January 12.

Since the 1958-59 season started, the Falconaires have been invited to sing at many places. They sang for the Farmington Exchange Club in November and last Tuesday, December 2, they sang for a district Kiwanis meeting in Royal Oak. They have been invited to sing at the Masonic installation at the Town Hall tomorrow night. The Twelve Tones will also sing.

Falconaires is a select group which was started by John W.
Henderson, former vocal instructor, when high school was still held in the junior high.

May Travel to New Zealand

A visit to the bottom of the world may be in the offering for a FHS Junior. June Habicht is applying to go to New Zealand next summer on a contract with the American Field Service student exchange program.

Assuming that she will be selected, June will leave from California on February 9 and arrive in New Zealand on February 25. While there, June will live with her "family" and probably attend an all girl school.

The New Zealand program is new this year and will cost June $100. At this point, she has no assurance of any outside aid to help defray the expenses.

Going abroad is not a simple matter. June had many, many forms to fill out. After this, June was interviewed by James Geiger, principal; Mr. Timmons, guidance officer; Mike Agee, exchange student last summer; Jack Lawing, Student Council member; and Mrs. Harvey E. Chapman, AFS advisor for Farmington. At the conclusion of the interview June was evaluated by these people, and is now anxiously awaiting word from the New York AFS office.
M.B.

Elizabeth Mereshak is a student teacher in home economics at Farmington Junior High. She is also a graduate of the U. of M.

There are also three alumni who have taught but are not teaching now: Joanne De Nies, Class of '53, taught in Farmington last year. She was married and is not teaching at the present time. Her married name is Mrs. Saam.

Marilyn Goers taught in Farmington last year. She was married and she and her husband have moved out of the city.

Sylvia Bates is a graduate of Michigan State. She was proposed for teaching but married Daniel Johnston and went to Puerto Rico.

Students Take Aptitude Tests

"Testing which has been going on the past two weeks will continue through mid-January," stated Mr. Timmons, guidance counselor.

There are two tests being administered. One, put out by the Michigan Employment Commission, is a battery aptitude test. The commission will check and re-grade the tests, and then interview the students and discuss their strong and weak points with them. This test was given to seniors who requested it.

The second is the Differential Aptitude Test given by Farmington Senior High as part of the new program of testing. The test covers 8 areas: verbal, numerical, spatial, abstract reasoning, space relationship, mechanical, spelling, and sentence structure, and takes 2 days to finish. The test will show both strong and weak features of the students.

Next semester the tenth graders will be given the Mooney Problem Check List. This test will be given and results will be used for tenth grade interviews. J.A.R.
