LYNN ROTH GR. 4-5181 Delos and Mildred Hamlin of Cass Avenue just returned from a full season of back hunting but neither of them was satisfied with their daughter and family. Raymond and Virginia Hamlin of James Court, entertained their sister and her husband from New York City, New York, for a couple of weeks during which Virginia gave a wedding dinner for her niece with 40 guests present. (Virginia's daughter is to be maid-of-honor). Then there was a family gathering of 20 for a buffet luncheon at the Hamlin's took their sister and brother-in-law to their cabin at 110, Michigan, to do some hunting.

Planning a whole month in advance, Lillian Gates of Moore Drive really gave a surprise 6th birthday party for her husband, King. Their 28 guests were entertained with music and dancing on the porch by records, and a piano which was brought in for the occasion. Lunch was served by the catering service of the Meadow Brook Country Club. Nellie Giachina of Cass Court, attended a wedding shower with 300 guests at the Italian American Club on the East side of Detroit, given for her niece's wedding which took place in January.

BROWNIE 180 - Chick Millard, leader. This troop has a wonderful Christmas treat to report. The girls, their leaders, Mrs. Millard and Mrs. Rankin, and four mothers, Mrs. Sales, Mrs. Caruthers, Mrs. Kemp and Mrs. Diley, and two sisters of the girls, Heidi and Sharon, all boogie'd a Greyhound bus for a trip to downtown Detroit. There they enjoyed seeing Cintrama. Since the troop is working on the theme of Hawaii for this year, they especially enjoyed scenes of Hawaii and Tahiti. BROWNIE 198 - Joyce Gagnon, leader. The last troop meeting was thoroughly enjoyed with Intermediate Scout Linda Cox teaching the girls two new games and two songs. As a Christmas project the troop is making angels from cone shaped paper cups. With mistletoe, holly, pine cleaner, hold wings and decorated with sequins, they should enhance any Christmas scene. A week ago the troop presented their new assistant leader, Mrs. Flyvanka, with her Girl Scout pin.

James and Frances Robson and family of James Court have returned from (Carsonville, Michigan, where the family spent several days (Thanksgiving included) with Trance's mother, Jimi just returned from New York City, New York, where he attended the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Christmas party. In addition to playing cards there was dancing in the garage, which is wired for Hi Fi with a jukebox lunch served later in the evening. QUITE A BIT of excitement took place on Moore Drive last Saturday night! Seems there was a prowler around Ed and Carol Kelly's home at 2:30 a.m. The Kelly's neighbor, Mariene Theobald, having just returned home from an evening out, her cat cut the front door which drew attention to the figure standing just outside the Kelly's front bedroom window. Starlet's prowler was in direction of Gill Road (the police traced his footprints in the snow) to a car in which he fled. John and Helen Ross of Alta Loma had friends for the weekend-end from Saginaw, Michigan, as
