SHOPPING'S A HOBBY with some people. They li nothing better than a long store-by-store hunt for a bargain. For the rest of us shopping is one of those things bargain. For the rest of us shopping is one of those things that just has to be done. So we put it off until the last moment—especially at Christmas—then find ourselves rushed for time. The Yellow Pages directory can make your last-minute shopping much easier. It lists the names and phone numbers of local dealers. Do your searching in the Yellow Pages-and save yourself valuable time

TAIKING OF CHRISTMAS SHOPPING, why not give your family a gift that's useful year-round, smartly styled—comes in a choice of nine decorator colors? Sounds expensive but it isn't—costs only about a dollar a month after a small installation charge. It's an extension phone—the gift that speaks for itself. One in the bedroom, kitchen or laundry room will save time and stors year after year. And each time iddentified the statement of the statement o time and steps year after year. And each time it does, your family will bless you for your thoughtfulness. Just pick up your phone and order a phone.

WHEN SPEAKING to each WHEN SPEAKING to each other, Long Distance operators usually use a code (it speeds your service). "D-A" means the party doesn't answer! "B-Y" means the number is biasy and so on. An operator was stumped recently when another operator informed her that the number being called was "O-M-C." "What does that mean?" she saked, mystifad. "Out milking cows," came the reply.
