Trojan Varsity Loses, JVs Win Thriller Over Clarkston

The Clarenceville Trojans opened league basket-ball play Friday night in their first home contests, with the varsity losing but to Clarkston and the junior var-sity posting a narrow-margin win. Clarkston's height advantage, giving them back-board control, proved too much for the varsity to cope with.

with.

Play was fairly even for the first half and the Tro-jans left the floor at half time trailing by only five points, 21-16. In the second half, however, the Wolves began to find the mark more regularly to widen their lead at games edge to 12 points, 50-38.
