Youth Expert To Speak at Gallean Baptist

Don Lonie of Detroit, recognized across America as one of the leading authorities on youth problems, will speak at the Gallean Baptist Church of Livonia, from Dec. 28 to Jan. 1 with the talks beginning at 7:00 p.m. each evening.

Lonie has a message which speaks to young people and adults alike... He speaks their language, and doesn't pull any punches.

A background of speaking and counseling in high schools, summer camps, State training schools, church groups, a liberal arts education at Wheaton College, and two trips to Europe where he addressed numerous church, school and civic groups, prepared Lonie for his unique ministry.

DOING THEIR PART to help make the Christmas season a brighter one for less fortunate families of the area, students in the Farmington public and parochial schools asked this year...

Botsford PTA Yule Party Big Success

It took a Christmas Party to bring out practically all the children of Botsford school and their parents on Dec. 18.

The entertainment was provided by students Peggy Udman, Barbara Weiss, Donna Klabin, Eleanor Sanborn, Gwen and Carol Balla, and of course Janet Glatton as Jingles.

The excitement was terrific. Thanks to Mr. Bob Seal for his participation without whom Christmas wouldn't be Christmas.

The old-age story takes new meaning each year as again we wish all our friends and customers:
