"We're looking for people who like to draw"

BY JON WHITCOMB

DO YOU LIKE to draw or paint? If you do — America's 12 Most Famous Artists are looking for you. We'd like to help you find out if you have talent worth developing.

Here's why we make this offer. About ten years ago, my colleagues and I realized that too many people were missing wonderful careers in art... either because they hesitated to think they had talent... or because they couldn't get top-drawer professional art training without leaving home or giving up their jobs.

My colleagues and I decided to do something about this. Taking time off from our busy art careers, we pooled the extensive knowledge of art, the professional know-how, and the priceless trade secrets which we ourselves were able to learn only through long, successful experience.

We organized this knowledge into a remarkable series of lessons covering every aspect of drawing and painting. Then, to illustrate these written lessons, we made over 5,000 special drawings... with each of the famous artists graphically demonstrating the particular art techniques for which he is best known.

Finally, we perfected what we sincerely believe is the most personal and effective method ever developed to give art students constructive criticism.

In short, we created a complete practical training course in Commercial Art and Illustration that people everywhere could take right in their own homes and in their spare time. This original course proved so successful that two equally practical professional courses were later created—the Famous Artists Course in Fine Arts Painting and the Famous Artists Course in Professional Cartooning.

Our training has helped thousands win the creative fulfillment and financial rewards of part-time or full-time art careers. Here are just a few:

Don Smith lives in New Orleans. Three years ago Don knew nothing about art—even doubted he had talent. Today, he is an illustrator with a leading advertising agency—and has a future as big as he wants to make it.

Lilian Ashby of Toronto writes: "I'm losing count but I believe I have painted 57 and sold 41 pictures since beginning your wonderful Course."

Father of 3 Wins New Career

Stanley Bowen, a father of three children, was trapped in a dull, low-paying job. By studying with us, he was able to throw over his old job to become an illustrator for a fast-growing art studio... at a fat increase in pay!

Gertrude Vander-Poel had never drawn a thing until she started studying with us. Now a swank New York gallery exhibits her paintings for sale.

A West Virginia salesgirl studied with us, got a job as an artist, later became advertising manager of the best store in Charleston.

Earns Seven Times as Much

Eric Ericson used to be a clerk in an auto parts department. Thanks to our training, he is now an advertising illustrator at seven times his former salary.

Harriet Kuzniewski was bored with an "ordinary" job when she sent for our talent test. Convinced she had the makings of an artist, she enrolled with us. Soon, she landed a job as a fashion artist. Today, she does high-style illustration in New York.

Profitable Hobby at 72

A great-grandmother in Newark, Ohio, studied painting with us in her spare time. Recently—at her first local "one man" show—she sold thirty-two of her water colors and five oil paintings.

Typist to Fashion Artist

With our training, Wanda Pickulski gave up her typing job to become fashion artist for a local department store.

When Kathryn Gorsuch found out she was to have a baby—she left her filing job at an aircraft company and studied art at home with us. By the time the baby was seven months old, she went back to work for the same company... this time as a well-paid commercial artist.

John Whitaker of Memphis, Tenn., was an airline clerk when he began studying with us. Two years later, he won a national cartooning contest. Today he draws a popular comic strip enjoyed by millions.

Mother Boosts Family Income

Elizabeth Merriss—busy New York mother—adds to her family's income, designing greeting cards and illustrating children's books.

Harold I. Hopkinson of Wyoming sold $1,000 worth of paintings during summer vacation and was commissioned to do a mural for the new Mormon Temple in Los Angeles.

John Buskett was a gas company pipefitter when he enrolled with us. He still works for the same company—but as an artist in the advertising department! At much higher pay.

Donald Kern—a Miles City, Montana cowboy—studied art with us. Now he paints portraits, sells them for $250 each, and gets all the business he can handle.

Where Are Tomorrow's Artists?

We're not surprised by the success of our students. Opportunities open to trained artists today are endless. We continually get calls from art buyers all over the U. S. They ask us for practical, well-trained students—not geniuses—who can step into full-time or part-time jobs.

We're convinced that other men and women are missing an exciting career in art simply because they hesitate to think that they have talent. These are the people we want to find and train for success in art.
