MRS. DAVID KRINGS
GR. 4-9644

Two families in the subdivision have enjoyed a brief respite from Michigan winter.

The Bill Rivers of Power Road returned last week-end from a two week trip to Florida. While there they visited with relatives of Mr. Rivers in Sarasota and Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Kelly and daughter of Shadyridge have returned from a month's stay in Florida. Mrs. Kelly and daughter flew down early in December, while Mr. Kelly drove down so that he might be present at an election of officers. Refreshments will follow the business meeting.

On Saturday evening, January 10th, the Charles Edwards family in Shadyridge entertained 32 friends, honoring Ted Nagorcan, brother-in-law of Mr. Charles, on his birthday. That same week-end, little Joanne Poltar, neighbors of the Edwards, quietly observed her fourth birthday.

On Sunday, January 11, little Joanne Elizabeth Reid was christened at 2 o'clock at Our Lady of Sorrows. The John B.

What's New at the — LIBRARY

Many are asking "When is the library going to open?" The library Board feels that it will be able to announce a definite opening date within the next two weeks. The daily hours that the library will be open will be announced at the time. It is the aim of the Library Board and the Librarians to have the Library open the maximum number of hours possible on the existing budget.

The furniture is on order and since it is not stock furniture and has to be made up, this has caused some delay.

The librarians are busy processing the several thousand new books which they were able to purchase with the available funds. There is a new book between the time it is considered for purchase and the time it reaches the shelf for circulation, so the library number of hours that it will be in place these days.

THE BOOK STOCK will be far from complete and well rounded out at opening date. A book stock is never "complete" in any sense of the word. It evolves slowly over a period of time. We, as individuals and organizations, are privileged to have our book stock grow through gifts of money and suggestions for purchase. Do not hesitate to call the Library, GR. 4-770, if you wish to discuss the needs of the Library and the designation of your gifts. A gift of money to your Library is an enduring and lasting one to be shared by all who follow.

The A.A.W.'s "Give a Book Drive" will be open until January 31st. Any member of the drive will be happy to take your contribution, supply you with an appropriate book plate and fill out and see that all is forwarded to the Library. The Friends of the Library Incorporated has an open drive to collect money for the Book and Library fund. Contributions can be sent directly to any member of the Library Board with checks made payable to the Farmington City and Township Library.

CASH CONTRIBUTIONS not previously announced are: Manufacturers National 10.00, Farmington Lions Club 100.00, John A. Allen 50.00, Louis Chavira 50.00, Anonymous 50.00, Mr. and Mrs. D. Axon 25.00, Library Canteen 19.00, Mrs. Edith Meyers 10.00, Robt. C. Douglas, M.D. 10.00, John T. and Mary T. 10.00, Kelly 10.00, Alfred and Alice Brown 10.00, Farmington Library Club (Gr. H. GIFTS OF BOOKS have been made by some 65 families and individuals who wished to share books from their personal libraries with the community. Among these are two sets of The Harvard Classics given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harris and bound volumes of the National Geographic, 1928-1932, inclusive, given by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brooks; books of early Michigan history that are a nucleus for a future Michigan history collection, given by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Smith; and received are volumes 78B, 11 of the Interpreter's Bible, and 8 more volumes to this definitive work for which the library is well stocked reference collection. The American Welding Society, through the efforts of Mr. James E. Rainey, have given an approximately $100.00 worth of welding books. The Saranap drapes that were installed at the front window last week are the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mosman.

BOOKS ALONE do not make a Library. People are even more important. The librarians are eagerly looking forward to reopening and serving "their public".

JACK RICHARDS went to Syracuse and Philadelphia first four days of this week to see demonstrations of the new sewer cleaning equipment. Tuesday Florence was a model for the fashion show which followed the birthday luncheon at the North Congregational Church. The title given to the show was "What You Were When". Members of the congregation had gotten out their most precious old costumes, some thirty of them, many a hundred years old. Florence wore a wedding dress of about 1850—a lovely silk bustle with lots of hand made tuckings and the rather heavy lace of those days. It did not have a bustle but it did have a long train. She wore the many layers of underclothes that went with such a costume and the white kid high laced shoes.

The American Field Service Pancake Supper held at Clareneville Jr. High last Saturday was reported a big success.

Funds raised put the committee on the way along toward their financial goal. Everyone attending had all the last pancakes and sausages they could eat and an opportunity to win a Japanese scroll painting done by exchange student Joy Hidaka. The prize was awarded to Mrs. Knowlton who correctly named the most flags of the United Nations.

The committee is currently centering its attention on finding an adopting family for this year's exchange student. Every student has been screened with the cooperation of educators in their own countries, for personality as well as intelligence, in order that the student chosen be the best qualified to make the experience enriching for themselves and all with whom they come in contact, officials of AFS included.

The adopting family has the most any foreign country and will find the experience more rewarding than they ever thought possible. To quote Mrs. Charles Pierce (Joy's American Mom) "A transfer of education and understanding is a daily event—an experience for which we are grateful!"

If you would like to adopt a foreign student for the school year or know someone who might be interested in doing so, please contact Mrs. Jean Zamestain of the Clarenceville Chapter of AFS at GR. 4-6420, for further information.

If you are not in the Clarenceville District, but are interested in AFS, contact the head of the school system you are interested in to see if they have an AFS organization.

Wood Creek Activities

The Senior Youth Group of the Franklin Community Church had their annual skating party at the Skaters Saturday night. About 30 boys and girls attended and had lots of fun skating in the pond even though it was really cold. When they came in from a couple of the girls had set so cold June let them soak them in the bathtub. They enjoyed sloppy joes, cocoa and popcorn and then put on records and danced in their socks to get the full benefit of the radiant heat in the floor. One of the boys brought his electric guitar and played rock and roll for them.

THERE WAS a Board meeting of the Wood Creek Farms Men's Association last Thursday night at the South home. Two new board members were elected—Conrad Lam and Ed Garden. The new officers for the coming year are: Bob Swift, president; Eric Janson, vice-president; Ed Garden, secretary; and Dick Taylor will be treasurer another year.

Everett Billu is taking a 10 week study course at Cranbrook. This includes cabochoning and faceting. He has already polished a pair of African turquoise stones and made cuffs for Carl from them. Everett built his own wheel to use at home and Alice gave him a cast iron wheel for Christmas which he plans to use to facet and polish the stones which they collected when they were out west.

MEI. BANFIELD spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Chicago at the National Home Builders show. Of course he saw all the newest things in building and in kitchen equipment. He thinks Ellen's kitchen is terribly old fashioned, but much of this new equipment is still not on the market.

The Swifts had invited three other couples—one from Grose Pointe, one from Dearborn and one from Birmingham—to go with them to the play at the Ridgeland Playhouse last Friday night. Unfortunately Ginny had to say home because of her very bad cold, but she did serve them all supper after the show.

Last Saturday night the Janssens went down to Ionia Temple to a concert and dance given by the Arpi Swedish Male Chorus. They sang many Swedish songs in their native tongue.
