Local Cage Squads Find Top Teams in Leagues Too Tough

Faicons Shine for 30 Minutes Against Top Ranking Berkley

It takes 32 minutes to play a baskethall game but the Farmington Falcons would have been happy if the game last friday had lasted just half that long. Even if it had lasted 30 minutes Coach Bob Burch would have been well pleased.

The Falcons outplayed the Berkley Bears during the first half of the game and were within two points of theing the undefeated, seventh ranking team in the last two minutes of the the last two minutes at the LACK OF SIZE will always be a disadvantage on cage courts, as little Tom Grimshaw well knows. With two tall men guarding him and no one to pass the ball to, Tom found it incessary to try a desperation over-the-head shot in this shuddon against Berkley last Friday hight. The hand going up to block it is that of Berkley Bear Dave Burris (45).

A HIGHLY unconventional method of (teing up a loose basketball is to set down on it but that is exactly what Falcon Tom Grimshaw (13) appears to be in the process of doing here. The hands of three Berkley players proved to no avail in prying it free.
