

Play, Including Egyptian Dance, Goes On Despite Lack of Heat

Judy Clappison, who was recently appointed associate teacher at the Kreson Dance Studio, performed an Egyptian dance as part of the performance of "The Mostellaria," an ancient Roman comedy, put on as the program for the meeting last Thursday night of the American Association of University Women.

The meeting was held at the Farmington Players' Barn on Twelve Mile Road. What made Miss Clappison's performance especially noteworthy was the fact that the wind had blown the door of the barn open in the afternoon and the furnace, working overtime against the bitter wind, had only brought the heat up to about 55 degrees by the time of the meeting.

Spectators remained bundled up in coats and boots and most other performers were pretty well added beneath their costumes while Judy did her exquisite dance in a costume consisting mostly of chiffon sleeves.

Also to be commended for their fortitude were two young lads, Duncan Wilson and John Perry, who demonstrated their eagerness for the organization of a Junior Players' group by performing as bare-legged Roman slaves.

The performance of the play drew out of the "Living Theatre" study group of AAUW and was done to show that comedy techniques today are still somewhat the same as when "The Mostellaria" (or "Hundred Years" was written in 200 B.C.)

The production was a joint effort of AAUW and Farmington Players and was performed for the latter group at its January 17 meeting.

Other performers were: Mrs. Wendell Brown, Mrs. Edge Cope, Mrs. Clarence Stoll, Mrs. John Perry, Mrs. George Nul-in, Mrs. David Mills, Mrs. Theodore Lapinski and Mrs. George Nahsolt.

AAUW members brought their husbands as guests and a provisionally large number, temperature and icy roads to enjoy the show.

On Feb. 13 Mr. and Mrs. Blaine LaPointe of Lorikay are leaving for Mexico. On their way down they will stop at Birmingham, Alabama to see Mrs. LaPointe's mother and father. They will be gone about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gordon of Howell, Michigan, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on January 17 with an open house being held at the home of one of their five daughters and her husband here.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Reince of Glenview Drive was open to relatives and friends with approximately 80 from Wayne, Rochester, Detroit, Howell, Lapeer and Farmington in Michigan and Tennessee, Indiana and Ohio attending.

A buffet supper was served in the basement recreation room decorated with white and gold crepe paper and clusters of gold bells. The table was decorated with gold tapered candles and small floral arrangements.

Following the buffet, dancing was enjoyed.

Bobbette and Butch Davenport left January 18 to drive to New York City. The following Sunday they drive down to Washington to visit Bobbette's roommate at Sarah Lawrence College. They were most fortunate in having good driving weather.

The Dornans had a grand ski weekend recently at the Otsego Ski Club at Gaylord. They went up Friday, January 18th, taking Mike and Bonnie with them. Bonnie has her ski and outfit and her own skis. Of course she couldn't reach the top rope so she rode up between her parents' legs but she had no trouble getting over the slope. Starting at 3 1/2 years and loving it, Bonnie should be quite a skier in a few years.

Saturday night was a busy night. Farmington High School had their J Hop and, of course, a number of our young people attended. Jack Swift, Margie and Dick Lam, Peggy Timmerman, Carter Elliot and Pat Cobb were among them.

The Franklin-Presidents Ball was held Saturday night at the Birmingham Country Club. Cocktails were from 7:30 to 8:30. A delicious roast beef dinner followed by dancing. Alleyne and Watson Kinney were among those attending.

Saturday night the McKays had a dinner party. After dinner they went downstairs to the recreation room to dance.

ELLEN and BRONSON Allen wanted to be sure to be at Bronson, Jr.'s graduation from Western College Sunday at 2:30 so they left Saturday afternoon for Kalamazoo and spent a night enroute. Bronson, Jr. will be home next week and soon will be starting his first job.

Last Monday the Sheriffs left for Des Moines for the funeral of George's mother. They had two days there with George's father and she glad to know he is going to Florida with a sister. They report quite a trip home.

They left Thursday morning by United Airlines to Chicago. It had snowed all day Wednesday and so much snow had piled up Midway Airport had but one runway open. It took forty minutes circling the field before they could land; it took an hour and a half before their American Airlines plane could get into the air to bring them on to Detroit's Metropolitan Airport - and there they found there three bags were not with them. They must have gone on to New York on United, but they got back to the hotel the following day.

JUDY WEIGHTMAN got home Sunday for the two weeks between trips at the U. of Michigan. She left Tuesday to go skiing at Boyne with a couple of her school friends. Next week Saturday she returns to Ann Arbor.

Buxom Belles Chapter Here

No doubt you have been reading a lot of the newspaper recently and also heard about the Buxom Belle Club on television lately, and are wondering if there is an active organization in Farmington.

The purpose of this club is to help women with a weight problem, to reduce by proper therapy, and Farmington does have such a chapter.

The Farmington group has about eight women who have successfully lost 25 pounds and two women who have lost 50 pounds, through this method.

They would be glad to help any woman who has more than 15 pounds to lose. Further information may be had by calling GR 6-6893 or GA 1-0683.

foot, Farn Ramage, Irene Krueger, Bertha Werschm and Mary Fox.

Irene Krueger is retiring president. She has served for the past two years. The secretary and treasurer who have served the chapter for several years were re-elected. Serving as first and second vice-presidents, respectively, under Mrs. Morris will be Ann Franzini and Catherine Byrne.

Neither rain, snow, nor sleet slowed the efforts of the Kendallarks.

Last Tuesday evening, January 20, a business meeting and election of officers was held at the home of the hostess, Mrs. Pat Berdeux, on Thorny Brae Road.

Madeleine Dean of Farmington was elected secretary; Myrtle Nye, treasurer; Marjorie Wait, publicity; and Fern Wilson was selected for the new office of public relations.

The club's outgoing officers were: Marjorie Belanger, president; Nadene Brel, treasurer; Marjorie Wait, publicity; and Fern Wilson was selected for the new office of public relations.

The Kendallarks will continue to meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month, under the leadership of Mrs. E. Elligood. New members are always welcome. Anyone interested in joining may contact Pat Berdeux at GR 4-7396.

Thompson is a research chemist with the Ethel Corporation, and is also an outstanding biologist. He is a Research Associate in Botany at the Cranbrook Institute, and has recently published with Marjorie Hall a flora of Oak County.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting.
