a new homemaker speaks...

"I found out in a hurry why Gas Clothes Dryers are so popular!"

Mrs. Patricia Hawley
2518 W. Willow
Lansing, Mich.

"Keeping a home in order is no easy job. I'd heard what a help a Gas Dryer could be and now I can see why. I can dry my wash in hardly no time at all and be free to do other things. Clothes are dried so nice that ironing is made easy, too."

Old-fashioned ways of doing things are not for smart new homemakers like Mrs. Hawley. When it takes five seconds to put clothes in a Gas Dryer, why spend hours doing lifting, hauling, hanging and taking down? The convenience of a modern Gas Clothes Dryer makes good sense — especially the way it fits so nicely into the budget.

SUE FLEMING

MA. 6-5283

These past few weeks of snow have truly endeared my hearth with cozy fire to me. While enjoying all this comfort, I peep out my window at the winter scene and the goings-on in our subdivision. We kids are mostly filled with tricks, heavy equipment and merchandise play in their trade. The weekends are by far the choicest "people watching" days. On weekends we have two categories of people: "The Livers" (our neighbors) and "The Lookers" (who are someone else's neighbors and may be ours someday). The lookers are in the last major category and neither snow, ice, rain, hail, or steel deflects them from their search.

Of late this reporter has been seriously thinking of brushing up on the art of lip reading. It is most expediting to have a "Looker" slow down in front of your new home or even stop and give comments which can never be heard. He says: "How charming!" I would have used green instead of that blue, "I like honey looking," or just plain "ugh!"

After serious study these Lookers fall into categories themselves. We have the type who hurries around. I can afford better than that. — and are off and gone. The young couple who carefully look and climb in their car to figure out "how do they live?" Those with the newspaper making the rounds. The interested who have finally boiled down the selection to three and are trying to eliminate two. These people appear sometimes on weekdays but are always good for at least two weekends. An so it goes! Each man to his own castle.

THIS WEEK, our "Lookers" turned "Livers" with their own castles are — John and Francis Louie from Minneapolis and their daughter Lorrie Jane who is a junior at Farmington High. They are true suburbanites even to bringing their own horse which they have stabled on Hagerty Road. The Don Marzenski's are now at home on Briar, furniture and all. They are moving in this day's sheet of their furniture and have really been roughing it. They find our weather a little different coming in from the state of Georgia, but we hope they enjoy it even if we don't have peaches. Mrs.

A. M. Lupton and children are settled on 124 Bedford moving in from Huntington Woods. CARL AND JEAN ESPY and their two small daughters Ellen and Carol are my new next door neighbors on Briar. They are from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania via a short stay in Oak Park.

The Russell Himmans and their four children from Beaumont are now residing on Beacon Tree.

The James Sharkeys, Duane Shoop, and Wade Sloan, all moved in this week on Ravenscroft, and the Viron Newtons are moving this weekend to the corner of Barton and Brampton Roads. With all these new folks, we all have a lot of meeting and greeting to do.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kennedy of Beaumont, Mich. announce the engagement of their daughter Judith Ann to Wilfred L. McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred McGuire of Overdale Court in Wood Creek Farms. McGuire is attending Michigan State.

HENRY AND MARY Nadeau attended a testimonial dinner on Feb. 4 to honor Larry Farrell, governor's executive secretary for the past ten years. Eleven hundred people attended the event which included Governor and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams and many state officials. Mr. Farrell was presented a testimonial dinner which was held in the Reo Club House in Lansing.

The Nadeaus daughter, Cheryl, arrived last Thursday for a visit with her family. Cheryl has just graduated from the Grace Downs Air Hostess School in New York City. She flew Sunday to Washington, D. C. to complete a final week's training with Capitol Airlines with whom she is now under contract.

NORM AND PHYLLIS General entertained the Gourmet Club at their home on Beacon Tree Saturday night. It is a monthly group chooses a different nation and features its food at a dinner party. Italy was the Gourmet's choice Saturday evening and the table was an epicurean delight with Antipasto, Lasagna, Spaghetti, Italian Salad, Spumoni, and appropriate wines with each course. Guest Patisanos were Ronnie and Toni Renner, John and Bernice Framm, George and Janet Shaffer. The food of Japan will be the Clubs next menu when they meet at the Renner home in March. Mrs. Renner's family are at this time in Japan and will return previous to the party so this should truly add to the authenticity.

Happy Birthday wishes went to Glen Davis on February 8. It was his 11th. Glen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Davis of Ravenscroft.

The George Thrones, from Ypsilanti, were in Monday evening to visit Mrs. Throne's father, Austin Ault, of Brentwood Ave. who is just now a patient in Redford Community Hospital.

Al Lindka and his sons, Bob and David, enjoyed a successful fishing trip last weekend.

Mrs. Emerson Ault of Mayfield Ave. will be leaving shortly for a week's visit with relatives in Akron, Ohio.

THE NORBERT SCHMIDT family from Delaware are arriving shortly to be guests for several days of Mrs. Schmidt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coleman on Shadydale Ave.

Because of the critical condition of his brother, Gerald Bolyard, Mrs. Loren Ray of Burbank, California and Mrs. Robert Young, who has been spending the winter in Florida, have both been notified to come home if possible. Mrs. Ray is the former Mildred Bolyard and Mrs. Young was Marion Bolyard.

The Mothers' Club of Westbrook School are planning a card party to be held in the school Thursday evening, Feb. 26th, and people of this area have been invited to attend. Picnics and nice refreshments have been arranged for. Proceeds will benefit the polo drive.

The Johnson Porters from New London, Ohio, arrived Saturday for a weekend visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Goodwill Industries from Detroit will be making their next collection in this area Monday, Feb. 16th. The winter has been very difficult for many underprivileged people and household discards of all kinds are greatly needed. Persons having articles to contribute should call Lora Ault, Greenleaf 4-2924 and arrange for a pick-up.
