Kiwanis Hear Scout Leader; Ladies Nite Set

As many members of the Farmington Kiwanis group listened intently, Everett Sherick, Scoutmaster of Walled Lakes Troop 108, reconstructed the character-building program and further aims of Boy Scoutism. Sherick, a veteran of many years in the entire scouting program from Cub Scouts to Explorers, provided a most interesting evening. As his guests he brought along Douglas DeGroat, an Explorer Scout. DeGroat helped recreate the thrills and memories that both he and Sherick shared at the annual Boy Scout Jamboree. The meeting was closed with the viewing of a motion picture made at the last Jamboree held at Valley Forge.
