Eagle PTA to Hear B. Cantor

Creative art work done by students at the Eagle elementary school will be on display in the hall for parents attending the next regular meeting of the Eagle PTA on Monday, March 9, at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker on the evening program will be Bernard Cantor, resident of Holly Hills and president of the League of Subdivision Association. He will speak on the theme topic "The Bridge Between the School and the Community." He will attempt to show how people determine school efficiency and the methods used to reach those conclusions.

Opening the first meeting will be the members of the Girl Scout Troop sponsored by the Eagle PTA.

A cash prize will again be awarded in the class having the highest number of parents in attendance at the meeting. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

New Children's Spanish Class Starts Friday

A new class in conversational Spanish for elementary school children is being offered under the sponsorship of the American Association of University Women.

This class will be open to girls in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades students in the Farmington area. It will be held in Room A-4 at the Farmington Junior High School at 13130 Woodward Ave., Detroit.

The class will meet every Friday at 4 p.m. beginning this Friday, March 6. The course will last ten weeks.

Teaching the class will be Miss Calzadilla, sixth grade teacher at the 22nd elementary school and a graduate student in linguistics at the University of Michigan.

The fee for the course is $5. Since the stated fee will be limited, all parents interested in having their child enrolled are requested to call GR 4-5172 and leave their child's name to assure him a place in the class.
