Jean McBride, William Bailey Married in Detroit March 7
Jean Ellen McBride of 3333 Rhoswood, Farmington, became the bride of William E. Bailey of Lake City, Michigan, at a single ring ceremony March 7 at the Plymouth Road Chapel in Detroit.
Rev. Samuel Hunter performed the ceremony. Marion Naeck played the organ and Mrs. Gordon Eoli sang "Because of the Beauty of the Lord."
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McBride and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pearsall.
A floor length, princess style gown of nylon organza worn by the bride featured satin bows reaching down the back. A crown of beaded pearls and a finger veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.
The bride's cousin, Sharon Stewart, was maid of honor and Judy Pearsall was flower girl. Miss Stewart wore a harem skirt of aqua nylon organza with jacket and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McBride chose a mauve satin dress covered with gray lace and navy blue accessories. Mrs. Pearsall wore a blue silk dress.

Eve Newcomers Seek Members
A new membership drive was announced by Membership Chairman Kathy Crawford at the recent meeting of the evening group at Farmington's Newcomers Club.
Kathy stated that contacting all of the new families of the area is a lengthy task, and she called upon members in general to lend assistance. Interested residents now and not quite-so-new, may obtain further information by calling Mrs. Crawford at GR. 4-1723.
Meetings are held on the fourth Wednesday of each month. Programs so far this year have included a dinner party at Hillside Inn in January, a lecture by a child psychologist in February, and in March a most interesting demonstration of Easter egg decorating in the manner of the Rumanians by representatives of the International Institute.
The group will hold its annual benefit card party on April 22nd. Tickets may be obtained from any member or from Jean Kuten, GR. 4-4590.

VFW Auxiliary Names Officers

Trees, Shrubs Lesson Topic
A lesson on trees and shrubs was presented at the last regular meeting, March 18, of the Farmington-Eight Mile Home Economics Club held at the home of Mrs. Louis Esch.
Presenting the lesson were Mrs. E. Marks and Mrs. C. Meyers. They explained that trees can best be fertilized by drilling holes at the end of the branch spread at half-year intervals. They also gave pointers on pruning, what grows best in different soils and locations and regard to the amount of shade and sunlight.
Seven members of the club visited the club's adopted yard at Northville State Hospital last week and served the patients cake, ice cream and coffee. Cigarettes and candy were also distributed.
The next regular meeting of the club will be held April 29.

At Home in Old Homestead
Jacqueline Davis
GR. 4-1230
Randy, son of Jim and Marge Christian, who became nine on Wednesday, celebrated his birthday on Saturday, April 11. His birthday party guests were: Bonny Hummel, Jimmy Harris, Steven Hines and Jerry Wadenstorer.
Pat and Bill Morgan joined nine other couples on Saturday night for a progressive dinner. This has been a popular with the Married Couples Club of the First Methodist Church of Farmington that it is now an annual affair. Appetizers were served at a home in Bel-Aire Hills, salad in Woodbine, soup in the city, the main course in Wagoner Farms and dessert and coffee at the Morgan home in Old Homestead.
ONCE AGAIN, roaming dogs are a subject of conversation. In the past three weeks, letters from the subdivision have been bitten by dogs, all of which belong to families living in Old Homestead. In each case the owner of the bite was notified by the fact that the children were dressed in heavy winter clothing. However, as warmer weather approaches, which will mean that future bites may cause serious injury. Need we mention that all dogs are supposed to be tied on a leash when outside?
The Applicants have moved the next square dance date from the second Saturday to the first Saturday for the month of April only. If you plan to join a square dance, please contact either Dorothy Furlong, GR. 4-0033, or Mary Toffoli, GR. 4-7174.
A reminder to the ladies to appear in Sunday, April 5, for the Spring Tea.
