On-To-Dallas Committee Starts Drive to Get Singers to Texas

The Farmington Falconaires moved one step closer to the Kiwanis International Convention in Dallas, Texas, last week as the Citizens On-to-Dallas Committee elected officers and made additional organizational plans for the purpose of guiding the project through a successful conclusion.

Meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Franjae, the group chose June Taylor as treasurer and Alex Ramsey as secretary. Bill Landacre and Mrs. Joseph Agee were elected to fill the publicity responsibilities. Fred Muller and Joseph O'Brien became industrial representatives. Ben Taylor and Lloyd Smith were chosen as co-chairmen for the group's activities.

The committee was pleased and encouraged as names of those giving heavy financial backing were read to the group. Votes of thanks went to Barthel Construction and Landscaping Company, Fred Curcio of the Gulf Oil Company, Berling-McHugh Ford, Glenbrook Convalescent Home, Max Hulet, and Earl Vivier Oldenbrook.

Also thanked were Mrs. Raymond Scheffer for making choir

WEST POINT PARK NEWS

MISS L. A. AULT
Phone GR. 4-4234

One of the loveliest of recent social events was a dinner party given by Mrs. V. C. Reddy, of Shadydale Ave., Friday evening. The guest list included most of the teaching staff of Pierson School and some of the husbands. Places were laid for twelve. Easter lilies and flowers of the season were used for decorations.

Wednesday afternoon, April 15, Mrs. V. C. Reddy entertained again, members of her sewing group being the guests. Upon completion of their work, the half dozen ladies drove to the home of Mrs. Forrest Ault, Hubbard Ave., and presented Mrs. Ault's new little daughter, Heather Marie, with a dainty dress and bonnet.

JIMMY GRUNDY, fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grundy, Hubbard Ave., and a student at Bentley High, was while riding a scooter, critically injured in an accident, near Eight Mile and Hubbard Ave. recently. He received a broken collar bone, a broken wrist and badly mangled hand, a head ache and numerous severe bruises.
