ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA. 6-6335

Bob and Ginny Swift flew to Chicago last Tuesday for the food show held at the Naval Pier by the National Restaurant Association. Wednesday the Hotel Training College of Cornell University held a cocktail party for some 150 at the Camelia House of the Drake Hotel. The Swifts were then included in a dinner for 25 given by Mr. Montague, president of Profit Catering Co. Thursday night the Swifts went to see "The Music Man," then flew home again Friday.

TOMORROW Alice Burlington is having horticulture therapy training work hop at Devon Gardens from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Ginny Swift is very active and considers most rewarding. Every Wednesday during the winter months Ginny has gone to the Pontiac State Hospital to work with mentally disturbed boys in the 12 to 14 year age bracket. Ginny and others take these boys to the hospital greenhouse for this work. Early in the year they planted tomatoes, cabbage, pepper and other seeds. When they were large enough they transplanted them to flats and, as weather permits, they are transplanted to the outdoor garden. These gardens are patterned on the 4-H plan and, when the 4-H show is given, these disturbed boys will take the best of these gardens to this show. The workshop tomorrow is to suggest methods of approach to these boys and how best to reach them. Call Mrs. M. A. 6-6738 for further information and, if possible, do attend.

SATURDAY, Wilfred L. McGuire received the Seaboard Award at the U. S. and G. L. Spillman left here April 9 in brand new Thunderbird, driving via the Ohio-Indiana Turnpike to Chicago and down St. Louis. He reached back the 24th of the month for a couple of days. When they there drove to Little Rock, Arkansas, by the time they reached back the 24th of the month, and red bud were in bloom, as were the roses. FARMINGTON HILLS

MRS. DAVID KRINGS

A meeting of the Farmington Hills Improvement Association was held Wednesday, May 20, at 8:00 p.m. at the Farmington Savings and Loan Building.

NEW NEIGHBORS in our subdivision are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Reed and their two children, who have moved into the Petz home on Broadway. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Petz and sons are temporarily residing in Normandy Hills, awaiting the completion of their new home in Warren, Michigan. Our best wishes go with the Petz and a warm welcome to the Reeds.

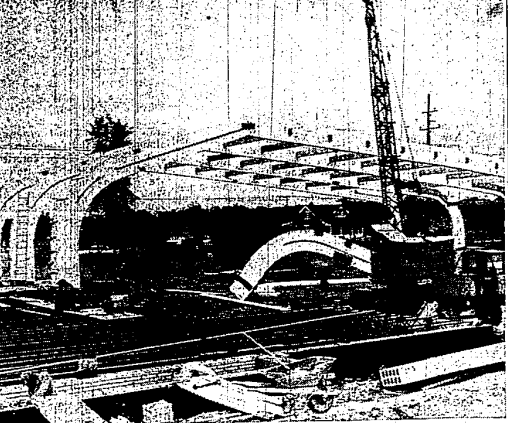

Girls of Senior Scout Troop 238 have been very busy lately. Jill Slingerland, Shirley McAdams and Karen Macneil, all of this troop, recently attended the Bud Guest show on Thursday evening over WJFL. The following Friday the girls went to see Cinerama and last Saturday evening they hosted a square dance at Dunkin' Junior High.

HENRY KELLY of Shady Ridge, for many years associated with Logan & Kanawha Coal Company, Inc. of Cincinnati, Ohio, has been appointed vice president and general sales manager for that company. His headquarters will be in Cincinnati, the promotion being effective June 1.

Takes Part in Albion College Dance Event

Miss Mary Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. May, 2005 West 8 Mile, participated in a full length evening demonstration entitled "Experiment in Dance," recently in the Sunken Garden, at Albion College.

The program was presented by 65 dance students of the women's physical education department and a son of Albion college under the direction of dance mentor, Mrs. Mary Blanche Packer. Miss Mann is a sophomore at Albion college.

A MODERN addition to the commercial district at Ten Mile and Orchard Lake Road is now going up. Forming the framework for the new Bel-Aire bowling alley being constructed on Orchard Lake just south of Leelanau are these large pre-cast trusses. They were being set in place last week. The building is scheduled for completion in time for the opening of the bowling season next fall.

The first part of the program will include sacred selections, folk songs from England and Latin America, and a number by the mixed quartet. The second part of the program will be presented by the Junior High girls' ensemble and the girls' barbershop quartet. The High School choir and several small groups will conclude the program by singing songs from several musical comedies, both past and present. The numbers to be sung are from "HMS Pinafore," "The Mikado," "Desert Song," "My Fair Lady," "Oklahoma," and "Carousel."

Jrs. to Fete Seniors Soon

The Junior Class of Clarenceville High School is now in the last stages of planning the Junior Banquet when it will roll out the carpet to the Class of '59.

A delicious lunch has been planned in hopes of making the evening additionally enjoyable. Gary Stern will be the toastmaster to the evening. The invocation will be given by Gene Scholes; Welcome: Ron Warren; Response: Mary Snell; Carol: Ruth Rubens. The new speaker for the evening will be Carl Johnson, a Farmington businessman who recently completed a tour behind Russia's "Iron Curtain." John will both discuss his trip and present colored films of his travels.

Frederick New Council Head

The closest race in the history of Clarenceville High School was decided Thursday when David Frederick was elected Student Council president. The new president was elected by the narrow margin of five votes over Gene Scholes, who will serve as Student Vice President and B. William Chermackoff. David wishes to attend either the University of Detroit or Wayne State University and would like to major in science. Gene plans to attend a small college and would like to pursue a liberal arts course in education. He would like to become either a history teacher or a coach.

Sen. J. Kennedy Guest Speaker This Saturday

Senator John F. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, featured speaker at the Democratic Party's May 23 Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner, will participate in a panel discussion that afternoon with Governor Williams, Senator Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart and Michigan's Democratic congressmen. The panel will be a highlight of the afternoon Jefferson-Jackson Day program, which will include films, exhibits and an informal reception. Theme of the afternoon program will be Michigan Means Business, and all events will be open to the public without charge. Questions from the audience will be invited and panel members will appear alternately between 2:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. All Jefferson-Jackson Day events, including the dinner, which starts at 6:30 p.m. will be held at the Light Guard Armory, 1400 E. Eight Mile Rd., Detroit. A reception will also be held in the afternoon in which guests will greet Senator Kennedy and Michigan Democratic officials and party leaders. Tickets to the dinner are $25 single and $35 for husband and wife. Seating arrangements will be made on a "first come, first served" basis, according to Mrs. Helen Salamon, general chairman of the dinner. A capacity crowd of nearly 3,000 is expected to hear Senator Kennedy deliver the main address.

GREAT OAKS FROM LITTLE ACORNS GROW

Just as great oak trees grow from little acorns, so do fine, big industrial plants have humble beginnings.

As with that sturdy oak, many things happen before a small plant becomes a large one.

The oak tree depends on favorable soil and weather during its early years. Our town, if it is to have good industrial payrolls, must provide a good climate for industry.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.

This is one of a series published as a public service by this newspaper in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association and the Michigan Economic Development Department.
