Newcomers to Hear Traveler

Larry E. Sommerfeld, Auto Mobile Club of Michigan's travel cameraman and lecturer, will address the Farmington Newcomers (Evening Group) on Wednesday, May 27.

He will mainly discuss Michigan's Upper Peninsula, but his travel experience has included most of North America, areas in Europe and the Far East. The program is being presented as an aid to vacation planning. Sommerfeld offers a lecture and original Kodachrome films—and a question and answer period.

The May 27 meeting will be held at the Farmington Savings and Loan building at 8:00 p.m. Members and guests may make reservations by calling GR. 4-3530.

To Graduate From Madonna

Elizabeth Mersbach of 28487 Eastbrook Ct. is among the seniors of Madonna College, Livonia, who will receive their baccalaureate holds Sunday, May 24, following 10 a.m. Mass in the College chapel.

Dr. Donald L. Reichelberger, assistant secretary of the Catholic Charities, will celebrate the Mass and preach the sermon.

Other pre-graduation activities will take place during the week. The annual senior garden party, celebrating the birth days of students and faculty, is set for Thursday, May 28. Later that afternoon, freshmen will present a program at the flag-raising ceremony honoring the seniors as representatives of their college and their country.

Following an evening candle-light procession, Sodality prefect Marlene Soltysiak will crown the outdoor statue of Mary.

The next day, the senior class will bid its farewell to a program for the student body. The evening will be marked by a senior farewell dance.

All students will attend Mass in a body the morning of May 28 when the intention will be for the class of '50. The following day Mass will be offered for the intentions of alumni and benefactors of the college.

Wooddale PTA Fashion Show Big Success

"Fashion Fantasy of Spring" style is sponsored reveal by the Wooddale PTA, was reported a huge success with 100 tickets sold and approximately 300 attending.

Fashions from Harvi's Suburban Casuals, Royal Clothes for Men, and Pixieland, all stores in the Farmington Shopping Plaza, were modeled by teachers, their mothers, and children of Wooddale School.

Attractive background for the fashion show were screens made by Mr. B. Stevens, decorated with flowers formerly used at a Kendallwood dance. The screens were given to the school for future use and, since the fashion show was so well accepted, they feel one will be given every year.

Between fashion show scenes the Kendallkicks choral group sang their hits to the successful afternoon when several members of the group performed in short acts with costumes. The scenery and Kendallkicks added entertainment so impressed the Kendallwood Women's Club that they borrowed the decorated screens to use at their fashion show next Monday night at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club and also hope to have the Kendallkicks perform that evening.

Moving Office Of S. Oakland Girl Scouts

Moving day for Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Inc., is May 28, although most of the 12, 534 girls and 4,286 adults who belong to this Council may be unaware of the fact.

The Girl Scout organization which has maintained offices at 300 South Washington Building, Royal Oak, for 7 1/2 years, will move to 3269 Coolidge Highway, Berkley. The new location is reasonably central since Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Inc., serves girls from Ferndale to Bloomfield Hills and from Royal Oak to Novi.

The office will be closed to business May 28 through June 1. It will reopen on Tuesday, June 2 at 8:45 a.m.

Moving with the office will be the staff of five clerical workers, eight professional (trained, salaried personnel who assist the volunteers in operating the Council).

Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Inc., is a Torch Drive Agency.

Bond-Eagle Girl Scout Unit Sees State Capital

TWEEN-III TROOP 172, led by Mrs. Wendell Brown and Mrs. Charles E. Findlay, took a trip to Lansing on Saturday, May 2. They spent the morning visiting the capital building and the points of interest. They ate their lunch at the Michigan State University cafeteria and enjoyed an afternoon tour of the campus.

On May 15, they held their annual international dinner at Kenbrook School. Miss Joan Troulson and Miss Marcia Moorehead, two Senior Scouts who are planning to attend the national camp at Denver this summer, were special guests. They showed the girls slides of the trip.

Senior Round-Up Patrol led by Mrs. Charles E. Findlay, Norman Seay called square dances for the girls. The girls served dishes representative of different countries and were called on to also designate their country.

Pre-Schoolers' Get Acquainted Programs Set

Annual get-acquainted programs for pre-schoolers are now being held at the various elementary schools in the Farmington School District. Starting Monday, May 18, they will run through the remainder of the month.

Parents of children who will be attending kindergarten in the fall (children who will be five years of age prior to Dec. 1) have been notified by mail of the date for the get-together at the school their child will probably be attending.

The program is designed to give the youngsters actual experience in what their first experiences with school will be like. They will spend time in the classroom actually taking part in some of the activities they will be participating in during their first weeks in school in the fall. Children will be kept in groups of actual classroom size with a 45 minute classroom session being held.

While the children are in the classroom, parents will meet with other school personnel to discuss general characteristics of the kindergarten program, Mrs. Frank Cizek. Twelve friends and neighbors attended. A unique memento was a diaper presented to Mrs. Verge on which the names of all those in attendance was sewn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nott of 2550 Wesley celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on May 17 with dinner at the home of friends. The Notts have a son and daughter, both married, and three grandchildren. They have lived here eight years; the first five on Oakland Ave. and the last three at their present address.
