

Mayfair Cooperative Nursery Orientation Meeting June 15

The Mayfair Cooperative Nursery will hold a registration orientation meeting, Monday, June 15, at 8:15 p.m. in the school on Middlebelt between North-western Highway and 14 Mile Road.

The orientation is required for admission to the nursery and is held for mothers wishing to send their pre-school children to the cooperative school in September, and also for anyone who is interested in a Co-op nursery.

Mrs. David Wilson of Farmington, president of the nursery, said three sessions will be held in the fall. The Tuesday and Thursday morning sessions will be aimed primarily for three-year-olds; Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings have been reserved for four year olds and children four and a half or who are soon to enter kindergarten.

The meeting is to explain the operation of the nursery, the role of parents in the organization, what parents as well as children can expect, introduction to teachers and a tour of the school.

Franklin Knolls Women Pick New Officers

The Franklin Knolls Women's Club held a luncheon at the Farmington Country Club.

The occasion honored the installation of the newly elected officers.

The honorees were Edna Greenwald, president; Marjorie Sheet first vice-president; Alene Tigger, second vice-president; Neva Schuchman, recording secretary; Ellen Liechman, corresponding secretary; Helen Pettibone, treasurer. June Inman will serve as advisor during the coming season.

Graciously accepting her new responsibility, Edna Greenwald pledged her future efforts to promote community improvement, which is one of the chief goals of the Women's club. She was presented with a tea rose corsage at this time.

The group, besides enjoying a delicious luncheon, was entertained by a humorous program presented by Shirley Sobel. A skit entitled "This Is Your Life" highlighted the past achievements of Edna Greenwald. A luncheon meeting and June Inman will illustrate their varied hobbies, interests and achievements, many items had been pilfered from her home and returned to the surprised woman during the skit.

At a special meeting, the board of the organization will complete the selection of the various committee heads for the new season.

A summer calendar of their program until the fall season when a full calendar of activities will be resumed by the Club.
