St Mary Hospital Guild Seeks New Members
With the completion of St. Mary Hospital just a few short months off, a membership drive starts this week. The total membership of the St. Mary Hospital Guild to 2,000 women.
The membership to date includes 1,400 members from the five communities surrounding the hospital, Livonia, Farmington, Plymouth, Northville, and Redford.
The Felician Sisters, who first established themselves in Livonia 20 years ago, were approached by a committee of influential men representing the Plymouth, and surrounding areas to undertake the building of a hospital in 1952. Construction was actually begun on April 30, 1958, and tentative completion of the hospital is scheduled for November of the year.
The new St. Mary's hospital has been designed along contemporary lines and includes Adjunct Diagnostic and Therapeutic Department. To date, over 200 physicians have submitted their application for staff appointment.
The purpose of the St. Mary Hospital Guild is to promote the interest of the Hospital and cooperate in such good works in general as shall come within the scope of activities with the knowledge and direction of the Administrator that can accomplish much for the welfare of the hospital and its patients.
The Guild offers four types

The school will be under the direction of Howard Redman, minister of youth and music, with a corps of some 40 teachers and helpers.
Mrs. William Moss will head the beginners department; Mr. Ronald Berner will head the Primary department for first, second, and third graders; Mrs. James Sherrill will head the junior department for fourth, fifth, and sixth graders; and Mrs. Henry Sherrill will head the senior high department.
Free bus transportation will be provided daily with the church's three buses following their usual Sunday school routes. Requests for pick-ups can be made by phoning EL 6-5372 or KE 7-0742.
A demonstration program will be held at the close Sunday night, July 19, at 7:00 p.m.

Christian Science
"Is the Universe, including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"
This is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday. The Golden Text is from Proverbs 3:19: "The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens."
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, a mass will be read (121:10): "The central fact of the Bible is the superiority of spiritual over physical power."
Included in the Bible passages to be read is this verse from Ecclesiastes 3:14: "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it: nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him."

Y" Announces Youth Program Summer Plans
The northwest YWCA is offering a short-term program of swimming instruction for girls 6-13 years at the Greenfield Village pool in Dearborn this summer.
Participants will attend classes every Tuesday and Thursday morning for a 5-week session beginning June 23. Instruction for beginners and intermediates will be offered. A mother-toddler class for children 2½ to 5 years and their mothers will also be held. Classes will be limited to approximately 25 participants per class in order to give each girl individual instruction. Those interested are urged to enroll at once at the Northwest YWCA branch office.
Trips to nearby places of interest, outdoor sports, crafts, dramas and cook-outs will be the activities featured in the YWCA's day camp, Pony Tail-This program starts June 22 and will also be a 5-week session, meeting a total of 15 mornings from 10 a.m. to 12:30 noon on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
The location of the day camp will be on the grounds of the New Northwest YWCA building at 28510 Grand River. Pre-registration is necessary for both the swimming and the day camp programs. Medical exams are required for participation in the swimming classes and will be given at the branch. For further information, registration and medical exam appointment, call the Northwest YWCA: KE. 7-8500.
High school volunteers are needed to help with both of these programs. Contact either Mrs. Margaret Walter or Miss Lisa Deppe, teen-age program directors at the Northwest YWCA.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Flint Meeting
Ernest Szalma, presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced today that the Farmington congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses has been invited to attend a four-day convention to be held July 9 to 12 at the IMA Auditorium in Flint. Mr. Szalma will head the local delegation of about 200 persons.
The convention is arranged by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc., located in Brooklyn, for Jehovah's Witnesses. A total attendance of 8,000 is anticipated.
