Coroner at Girls' State

Setting up their own governmental offices, 200 high school girls attending Wolverine Girls' State at the University of Michigan this year had an opportunity to learn more about the actual functions of governing with in a state.

Holding the office of coroner in one of the six mythical counties set up at Girls' State was Margie Lam of 28130 Westbrook Wood Creek Farms Village.

Miss Lam was one of Farmington representatives at Girls' State which ran for a nine-day period earlier this month.

An annual program, Wolverine Girls' State is sponsored by the Michigan American Legion Auxiliary.

MISTAKES, after all, do serve a purpose... our friends find such pleasure in pointing them out to us.

Among other dancers taking part in the performance will be Miss Kathy Whitting, 12, a teacher many years ago.

Grinager, Brown Wed Here Sunday, June 21

In a double ring ceremony at North Congregational Church last Sunday afternoon, June 21 Susan Jane Grinager, became the bride of Edward Allen Brown before their families and a number of college and other friends. The ritual started at 4 o'clock with the Rev. Ralph Reed officiating.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of raven tulle, with bodice of lace, three-quarter length sleeves and sabrine wreath. A crown of white and pink flowers adorned her hair.

For flowers she carried a basket of white and light blue helianthus.

HER ALBINO college room mate, Miss Pamela Diane Gee of Alma acted as maid of honor. She wore powder blue or tulle over tulle, with a full skirt and wide cummerbund of blue and white print silk.

Her bridesmaid was Miss Louise O'Brien of Lathrup Village, who wore an apple green dress similar to the one worn by the maid of honor, with blue and white cummerbund.

BEST MAN was the bridegroom's brother, John H. Brown of Richmond, Ky. The best woman was Donald Lampert of St. Clair Shores, and usher were Bruce Grinager of Farmington, brother of the bride, and Gary Warner of Farmington, brother of the bridegroom.

Vocal selections were "Song of Ruth" by Gaudin, and "How Do I Love Thee," sung by Mrs. Betty Portland of Alma, a college friend of the bride.

THE BRIDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grinager of 9810 Haldsted, was just graduated from Alma College. She graduated from Farmington High in 1956.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Brown of 7200 W. Nine Mile Road. He was graduated from Farmington High in 1952; has served four years with the U.S. Air Force; and is now in his junior year at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held.

Following the luncheon the regular business meeting was held with a report of the annual Dept. of Michigan Convention held in the Hayes Hotel in Jackson, Michigan being given by Delegate Mary Fox who assisted Pres. Mary Morris this year.

Farmington Chapter was again honored, Irene Krueger was elected to the office of Financial Secretary for the Department of Michigan.

The July luncheon and card party will be at the home of Mary Morris, 23182 Floral St., Farmington. Lunch will be at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 8.

The next business meeting will be held in the Fire Hall on Wheeler St. Thursday, July 16, at 1 p.m.

Garden Party Benefits Hosp.

Two hundred guests gathered at the home of Mrs. Molly Sinelli, 15058 Fox, Redford, Wednesday, to enjoy an afternoon of fashion, dessert, entertainment and prizes sponsored by the Redford group of the St. Mary Hospital Guild. All proceeds will go to the St. Mary Hospital Fund.

Huge umbrellas dotted the gardens and pink and white geraniums graced each table as guests were served dessert around the pool. Brightly colored sun hats, which were made available to those desiring them by Mrs. Sinelli, became quite a vogue for the party.

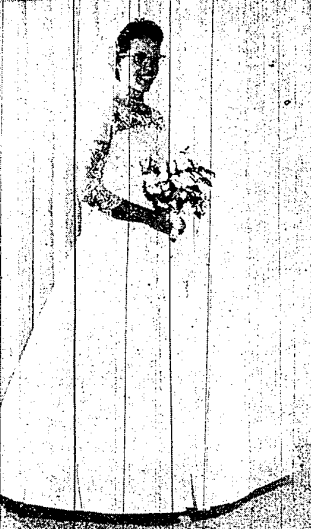

Guests were delighted at Helen Webster's collection of summer fashions modeled by the committee and narrated by Mrs. Carolyn Burns.

In conjunction with the membership drive which the Guild is currently sponsoring, a table was set up to receive new applications for any of those who were interested in becoming members of the St. Mary Hospital Guild.

Mrs. Sinelli, chairman-hostess for the party, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Ann Franco, express their gratitude to all the members and guests who helped to make the afternoon such an overwhelming success.

Sowers, Fuerstenau Wedding Rites June 20

On Saturday, June 20, nuptial vows were exchanged at the Farmington Presbyterian Church between Patricia Ann Sowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sowers of Farmington, and William James Fuerstenau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuerstenau of Detroit.

The Rev. Richard Geiger was the officiating minister at the 2:00 p.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, wore a gown of white imported Italian silk organza with chapel train. The gown was styled with a scalloped neck line, tiny gathered sleeves, and a full skirt with pointed insets of lace, traced with pearls and sequins below a tucked cummerbund. A rhinestone and pearl crown secured the veil of French illusion, and she carried a crescent bouquet of white roses intertwined with ivy.

Mrs. Roger Dyke, of Alma, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of crisp green tulle under white organza. The dress was adorned with dainty white embroidery circling the oval neckline and fitted waistline. Mrs. Fred Wyngarden of Pittsburgh, Pa. was the bride's matron, in an identical dress in yellow. They carried cascading bouquets of yellow carnations.

Misses Diane Davis and Elizabeth Nelson, nieces of the groom, preceded the bride down the aisle.

Wayne M. McDowell of Anchorage, assisted as best man.

MRS. W. FUERSTENAU

Roger Dyke, of Alma, Donald Sinclair, of Flint, and Donald Sowers, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Miss Dorothy Sowers of Toledo, aunt of the bride, played the wedding music. Benjamin Radding of Farmington sang "O Perfect Love," "And With Said" and following the professional "A Wedding Prayer."

Following the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 26005 Farmington Road, with 150 guests.

Immediately following the reception the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuerstenau will be living at Portage Lake, where they will be employed at Portage Inn for the summer. On the first of September they will be leaving for Princeton, N. J., where the groom will be entering Princeton Theological Seminary. The new Mrs. Fuerstenau will be teaching home economics at Hightstown, N. J.

Mr. Fuerstenau is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He was a 1959 graduate of the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Fuerstenau has been employed in Forest Hills high school as a home economics teacher. She graduated from Alma College in 1958.
