South All-Stars
Win, Then Lose
In L.L. Tourney

The South Farmington Little League All-Stars went a step further than their counterparts from North Farmington in the District 3 Little League tourney in Birmingham earlier this week.

But South Farmington couldn't get past a powerful Birmingham Americans squad Tuesday evening.

THE AMERICANS smothered the southern locals, 7-0, behind one-hit pitching by Gary Pearson. Thus both Farmington entries in the District contest have been eliminated as only South Farmington got as far as the quarterfinals.

Monday South Farmington's Mike Wall slammed a two-run homer to help his team to a 4-1 margin over Milford in the opening round of play. Bill Freeman limited Milford to four hits.

AGAINST Birmingham's Americans, the South Farmington batters could muster only one hit and three hurriers could not halt the Birmingham attack. Birmingham scored twice in the third, three times in the fourth and twice more in the fifth frame.

In the battle against Milford, South Farmington counted eight base hits and were aided by one error by a Milford fielder.

Enjoy Joint Field Day at William Grace

William Grace elementary school was the scene of a joint field day for children participating in the Farmington summer recreation program from both the Shawnee and Williston schools.

Field on Thursday, July 31, the day's activities began with a softball game won by William Grace, 10-7. Rounding out the morning's activities was a checker and a chess tournament, both won by Dr. Byrne, senior division (age 12-15). In the junior division (age 8-11), Steve Jackson took first place in checkers and Tommy Cookson and Larry Hixson tied for chess honors. At the conclusion of the tournament, the field day participants enjoyed a picnic lunch. The afternoon activities consisted of various field events, which were won by the following: Race track: Paul Yackley, junior division; Bob Byrne, senior. Fifty yard dash: Danny Miracle, junior and Bob Byrne, senior. Three-legged race: Danny Miracle and Dennis McGee, junior; Bob Byrne and Joe Chapman, senior. Bottle throwing: Barbara Harvey, junior; Barbara Hoffman, senior. Duck walk: Raymond Ray, junior. Mike Landre, senior.

Northern Little Leaguers
In Final Week of Play

North Farmington Little League play is being concluded this week with the playing-off of games rained out earlier in the season.

SOME changes in the positions of the top three teams in the league could result.

THE TIGERS are presently in top with a record of 10 victories against 3 defeats. Pressing hard, however, are the Indians, and Yankees with identical 8-4 records.

In action last week, Tuesday, the Yankees upset the Tigers 10-1. Although the Yanks got only five hits off Kraft for the Tigers they really made them work for runs. The Tigers, on the other hand, could push over any one run on their four hits. Thomas was the winning hurler.

The Tigers took their spite out on the Indians when they recorded a 2-0 shutout. Although the Indians got six hits off Davidson, they could not make them produce a single run. Pelky held the Tigers to only three hits but not little support from his mates.

IN OTHER ACTION, the Orioles took a 5-1 win over the Indians in a pitchers' duel and the Red Sox edged past the White Sox, 7-5. The Yankees also took the cellar dwelling Sox down the road to defeat by a 11-5 margin. Carpenter was the winning pitcher and Benner the loser.

Collecting homers in action last week were Oldershaw, Lawing and Reader.

Thomas, son of ex-Lion footballer Russ Thomas, shaped a sparkling four-hitter against the Birmingham Nationals in the opening action. He even smothered a three-run homer in the fourth inning.

BUT BIRMINGHAM came up with two runs in each of the last two frames to squelch the local squad's hopes. The final score was 4-3.

North Farmington jumped off to a three-run lead in the top of the fourth inning when Thomas lined his home run over the centerfield fence with teammates Billy Carpenter and Rod Stepanan aboard.

The shut-out bid lasted only until the bottom of the fifth. With two men on base, a Birmingham bid slapped a double down the first base line to bring the count to 3-2.

ERRORS in the bottom half of the last inning proved the North Farmington club's undoing. Two men reached base on miscues by the locals. On base hit the Birmingham runner raced home, scoring on a close play at the plate. Then Nationals' O'Neill came across on a long exertion fly to win the decision for Birmingham.

North Farmington managed only three hits off the Birmingham hurler Ed Kencroft. Both teams had two errors apiece. Birmingham had at least one base runner in each inning.

Giant Manager
Fetes Players
At Banquet

Last Thursday the Babe Ruth Giants of the South Farmington League closed their baseball season. Les Wortman, the manager, was host at a dinner given at Saratoga Farms.

The twelve boys present were: Bob Byrne, Bob Stevens, Pete Sanderson, Bill Mandaline, Bob Lord, David Schlack, John Loe, Ray Namie, Greg Wilson, Jim Hurst, Joe Byrne, John Clark. Parents of these boys also attending were Mrs. and Mr. Schlack, Stevens, Byrne, Williams, Lord, Mandaline, Mrs. Loe, and Omar Sanderson.

Guests of honor were their sponsor, Bill of A & W roaster, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Radke and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas. Radke is commissioner of Baseball for boys and Thomas vice-president of Babe Ruth League.

John Radke and Thomas spoke, complimenting the boys on their parent participation and stressing the need of this in Babe Ruth Baseball.

Team mother Mrs. George Lord presented the team manager with a gift.

Mrs. Wortman then brought in two surprises which contributed to the dessert: they were two beautifully decorated birthday cakes; one for Pete Sanderson and one for Bob Stevens.

Mike Tilder and Dave Piesock were the two team members absent because of vacations. Coach John Brink whose faithful attendance at practice and scheduled games, is very much appreciated, was unable to attend because of serious illness in the family.

S. Farmington Ruth
Stars Downed in 2nd Round of Play

The South Farmington Babe Ruth Stars, North Farmington play offs were downed in the second round of play by a strong Berkley team.

Paul Riggio turned in a masterful pitching performance in the opening game on Friday with the local team posting an 8-3 win over the Grossete Pointe Woods-Shores Americans. He gave up only five hits while striking out 13 of the batsmen to face him. His teammates gave him flawless defensive support in the field.

WITH TWO ON, in the first inning, one on an error and the other on a base on balls, Tom Sherlock pounded out a hit to push both runners across. The local stars added four more runs in the second inning on three walks followed by singles by Riggio, Duncanson and Sherlock. Extra base hits by Duncanson in the fourth inning and Joe Jentzer's in the seventh pushed over the other two runs.

Saturday the tables were turned on the local club by the Berkley American All-Stars who defeated them 7-3.

THREE ERRORS in the Farmington infield, coupled with a walk and a double gave Berkley a two run lead in the first inning. The Berkley club added another in the second on a walk, wild pitch and another double, and in the third their fourth run on a single and three walks giving up by starting hurler, Tom Thomas.

In the bottom of the third the Farmington team got two of these runs back. Paul Riggio walked and Norm Duncanson reached base on an error. Both came home on a long double to centerfield by Bob Byrne.

John Fulton came on in relief of starting hurler Thomas in the fourth inning. He was nipped for two runs in the fifth inning and one more in the sixth.

FARMINGTON scored its first run in the sixth when Cameron Ault reached second on a double error, moved to third on Tom Sherlock's single, and came home when the Berkley, shortstop errored on Will Grimala's grounder.

Don Gerber and John Fulton were selected for All-Star team after Gary Armstrong and Dennis Berling were disqualified. The Berkley team went on to beat the Grossete Pointe Woods Nationals in the final district contest on Monday and will now compete in the state finals in Ypsilanti.

Salt Lake City, Utah, put the sea gull on a pedestal. The Sea Gull Memorial was built in the memory of the flocks of gulls that saved the settlers' crops by eating swarms of crickets in 1818.

Dodgers Win Crown In Post Season Play

Play-off champions in the North Farmington Farm League postseason tournament are the Dodgers, who finished third in the regular standings.

The Dodgers whitewashed the Pirates, 7-0, recently for the play-off title. The Pirates had ended the regular season in second place.

Big blow for the Dodgers was produced by Junior Bughi in the second inning. Bughi tripled with the bases loaded to chalk up three of the six runs the winners tallied in that frame. The game was played July 29.

The Dodgers made only eight hits off the Pirates' pitchers, but they all counted. The Pirates were held to three hits by Dodger hurler Holton.
