

Horse Show Here Aug. 29

The Clarenceville Civic Association along with the Clarenceville Methodist Men's Association will present a benefit horse show on Sat., August 29 on Botsford Inn property on Grand River near Eight Mile.

Including show and action events, the western-style program will begin at 10 a.m. with numerous trophies and ribbons to be given out.

ENTRIES may still be submitted as late as the day of the show, announced show secretary Ralph Stuller. With 19 events scheduled, nearly 100 ribbons will be passed out to placing entries. One trophy will be awarded in each event.

Capping the day's program will be the obstacle race in the afternoon. The last event on the card, the obstacle race, is open to all entries, regardless of class or age.

Judge will be R. LaRose, while C. L. Moore will act as ringmaster.

Local Riders Enter 4-H Fair

Fourteen members of the local Town and Country Riders club will show horses at the 13th annual Wayne County 4-H fair August 18-23 at the Fairgrounds, Quirk Road, Belleville.

In all, more than 300 4-H riders from Wayne County and nearby will display various projects developed throughout the past year.

To raise money to support the fair, officials will conduct a king and queen contest with each participating group furnishing a contestant.

Sylvia Coon of the Town and Country Riders will be the local candidate for queen. Sylvia is also among the top five horsewomen in her class, by virtue of competition at last year's fair.

The Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, New Mexico, comprising 127,000 acres is the largest Scout camp in the world.

N. Farmington Yankees Claim League Lead

Three make-up games in the North Farmington Little League were played-off last week, shuffling the team standings somewhat and setting the stage for a couple of "it" games.

The trio of contests had been postponed during regular-season play earlier.

IN TWO of the battles the Yankees claimed decisive victories and moved from the tie for second place with the Indians into undisputed possession of first place.

One of the Yankees' wins was a 17-1 mauling of the Indians. The other Yankees' success was a 5-3 margin over the Red Sox.

In the third contest, the Indians edged the Tigers, 8-4, dropping the losers out of first place.

As a result of the make-up games, the Yankees stand alone atop the league ladder with an 11-1 record to date. They are second are the Tigers and Indians, each with 10-4 cards.

The Red Sox follow at 9-6 and the Orioles and White Sox trail with 3-12 and 2-12 marks respectively.

ONLY ONE more rain-out game remains to be played. That meeting will find the Tigers and White Sox battling.

Should the Tigers win, they will come up even with the Yankees for first place in the circuit and will force a play-off match to determine the league's title.

Those are the "ifs" of the North Farmington Little League in the waning days of the season.

In their 17-1 success over the Indians the Yankees amassed their heavy margin on only nine hits. John Thomas limited the Indians to three hits. Lost his hurler was Ron Steadman.

EARLIER, Yankee moundsman Greg Carpenter tossed a no-hitter at the Red Sox and his team-mates combined for seven hits in fashioning a 6-0 bulge. Bob Sheets was the loser for the Red Sox.

G. Pelky of the Indians shopped a four-hitter, but struggled to an 8-6 win over the Tigers last Thursday in the only other make-up game. The Indians counted nine base-hits off loser Tom Davidson.

Speaking of a certain strict judge, Abraham Lincoln remarked: "He would hang a man for blowing his nose in the street, but he would quash the indictment if it failed to specify which hand he blew it with."

Junior League Football Meeting Called Aug. 20

Officials of the Farmington Junior Football Association have called a meeting for all boys and parents interested in the Farmington Rockets junior football team.

The meeting will be held Thursday, August 20, at 8 p.m. at the Farmington Senior High school on Shawanawase Road. All boys interested in playing junior football this fall must be accompanied by one or both parents.

ANY BOY between the ages of 9 and 12 years of age can play in the Little Football League. If the boy was eligible to play Little League baseball this year, then he is also eligible for football this year.

However, there are weight limits. The maximum weight is 125 pounds, and the minimum weight is 60 pounds. If a boy weighs only slightly more than 125 pounds, however, he can still report for practice.

Heavy boys usually lose five to seven pounds in the first week of practice.

SCHEDULES for this fall's play have already been established as listed below:

Aug. 21—First day of practice.

Sept. 12—Practice game with Southfield.

Sept. 19—Farmington at Grease Point Woods.

Sept. 26—Hazel Park at Farmington.

Oct. 3—Cannon at Farmington.

Oct. 10—Farmington at North Bedford.

Oct. 17—Farmington at O'Shea (N. W. Detroit).

Oct. 24—West Dearborn at Farmington.

Team officials also expect to arrange a night game with Southfield and hope to have an exhibition game in Briggs Stadium before one of the regular Detroit Lions games.

New game pants (black with orange stripes) and warm up jerseys have been purchased this year and should make the Rockets one of the smartest looking teams in play.

The Sorrows team chalked up a regular summer league record of 11 wins and one loss. Its overall card, including play-off contests, is 17 wins and three defeats.

Jerry Main led the team in batting with a .613 average. He was followed by Rick Hug (.500), Jeff Barth (.472), Rick Barth (.419), and Pat McHugh, Bob Allen and Terry Goyt (.321).

The Barth brothers, Jeff and Rick, combined for nine victories on the mound for the locals. Jeff was tops with five wins and no losses, while Rick was 1-1 for the year.

Manager Bill Gallagher and coach Bill Hoppling predict that their team's consistently high batting average and superlative fielding, backed up by the Barth brothers' pitching, will win the city championship.

Team members on the Sorrows' squad are: Jerry Main, Rick Hug, Jeff and Rick Barth, Pat McHugh, Bob Allen, Terry Goyt, Gerry Armstrong, Terry MacDowell, Mike Groff, Tom Orban, Rick McKinnon, Dave Ormsby, Rick Cyr and Tom Allen.

Speaking of a certain strict judge, Abraham Lincoln remarked: "He would hang a man for blowing his nose in the street, but he would quash the indictment if it failed to specify which hand he blew it with."

City Council Proceedings

A special meeting of the Council of the City of Farmington was held on August 10, 1959, at the purpose of a Public Hearing on the proposal to acquire and construct a free off-street parking lot in the downtown area.

Meeting was called to order at 8:15 p.m. by Mayor Lindbert. Present: Mayor Lindbert, William Robertson, 31978 Lamar.

Opposed to any tax levy and parking lots on Oakland.

Albert P. Herzog, 22280 Farmington Road, Attorney, acting as agent for eleven property owners on the south side of Orchard Street and Grove Street presented to the Clerk, a signed copy of objections to the proposed parking lot in the downtown area.

He gave a detailed report and outlined the opposition.

Mr. Hubert, 23617 Warner Ave., requested information regarding entirely or progressive plan of the development.

All interested parties have been heard, the Mayor Pro-Tem declared the hearing closed at 10:25 p.m., and expressed appreciation to the School Board for use of the building for the hearing.

Motion made by Brotherton and supported by Peterson that the meeting adjourn. Motion carried, all ayes.

Meeting adjourned at 11:37 p.m.

V. O. BATES, Mayor Pro-Tem

TRENA M. QUINN, Clerk

Broiled Fruit Will Make You Famous!

Serve your family and guests food garnished with succulent broiled fruit and watch faces light up!

It's an original, yet easy way to add color and zest to meals. Brush with butter or honey then broil orange slices, apple rings, pineapple wedges, or let your imagination be your guide! And remember, the "best broiled" quick, clean Gas flame gives you that true broiled flavor. It quickly sears food outside to seal tender juicy inside! With Gas it's also smokeless.

Flame broiling is another reason why good cooks insist on a modern Gas Range. Take a tip... find out today from your Gas Range Dealer about all the advantages of modern Gas cooking. And for a free 32-page recipe book, just jot down your name and address on a postcard and send it to Recipe Book, Home Service Department, Consumers Power Company.
