From Orchard Meadows Subs
 Daniel Hickey GR. 6-1869

The first official general organizational meeting of the subdivision will be held at secretary Scott Brown's home on Thursday evening, September 17. President Bill Fitzgerald would like every member to be present at this important occasion. The officers of the Sub along with attorney, Bob Nelson, will give a report on the progress to date, there will be appointments of various committees and delegates. To mention just a few subjects to be covered. Refreshments will be served.

THAT WHITE haired gentleman seen going from door to door last week, wasn't Santa Claus. It was our neighbor Stanley Drake passing out bags full of corn on the cob, fresh from his garden. It was just his way of thanking the Sub for their egg patronage.

The next meeting of the Farmington Speech's Investment Club will be held at my home tomorrow, Friday evening. There still one or two openings in the club available, so if any of you readers outside of the sub are interested in joining, why not give me a phone call for particulars.

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome our new neighbor, the Mills family. Claud and Caroline Mills, with their two children, moved into their new home last Friday.

Cathy Stevens was last week's hostess for the ladies bridge club. First prize was won by Verna Gray and Joan Brown, who walked off with the second prize.

IF ANY OF YOU have been worried about a light blue airplane circling overhead these past few Saturdays, put your minds at rest. It's just Bill DeHann at the controls taking his flying lessons under the astute tutorage of Jack Yates.

The antique auto club of America should have a new member in a year or so if Bob Butts has his way. He is now in the process of restoring his recently acquired 1935 Ford roadster to the original state.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Annette wore a navy silk shantung sheath dress with light blue accessories. She carried Ruyumbaian lilies.

Mrs. Cole, the mother of the groom, wore a gown of blue and white and carried flowers similar to Mrs. Annette's.

MAID OF HONOR was Alice Annette, sister of the bride, who wore a dress of turquoise organza over taffeta, a princess-styled, long-sleeved, white tulle gown with a small basket and wore a Dior bow headress.

The best man was Jack Clements of Welland, Ontario, a college friend of the groom. Ushers were: Armand Vigna of Ravenna, Mich., and Robert Ginn of Lima, Pennsylvania.

The first flowers were white gladiolus and snap dragons. Organ selections included: "Ave Maria," "O Promise Me," "Perpetua Lov," and "Others. The music was played by Delene Domes, formerly of Farmington and a college roommate of the maid of honor at the U-M.

A reception was held at Botsford Inn following the wedding ceremony.

THE GROOM is presently stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, assigned to the Judge Advocate headquarters there.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Northern Michigan and Canada. While in Canada they plan to stop at the Stratford Shakespeare Festival in Stratford to attend the plays show there.
