Plan Lutheran Week Program

Prince of Peace Lutheran Church (Missouri Synod) of Farmington, will be one of the over 300 congregations in Michigan participating in Lutheran Open House Week scheduled Nov. 1-5.

This is an Evangelical Mission program with the theme being "Bringing Christ to People and People to Christ."

Special evening services will be held at Prince of Peace each night of the week. Pastor Albin Stadel of Ontario will be the guest pastor for these services.

Lay visitors, trained by Pastor Carl Mehl of Prince of Peace, will also visit non-church homes in the area.

The week will be climaxed with the dedication of the beautiful new Prince of Peace Church at 9:15 a.m. All residents are welcomed, Pastor Mehl said.

The church holds Divine Service each Sunday at 10:30 a.m. with the Sunday School Service at 9:15 a.m. All residents are welcomed, Pastor Mehl said.

SUBSCRIBE by phone. Only $3 a year if you live in Oakland or Wayne counties, $4 elsewhere. Call now and you'll get next week's 25¢ copy in the mail. Telephone GR. 4-6225.

Farmington Universalist Church To Host Joint Annual Meetings

The Farmington Universalist church, Warner street at Thomas, will host this week-end, Oct. 9 and 10, the joint annual meetings of the Michigan Universalist convention and the Michigan Area Council of Liberal churches.

About 75 delegates are expected to attend the session, which will begin Friday evening and continue through Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. Elizabeth Etz of Northville, president of the Michigan Universalist Convention, will preside over a business meeting of that group at 9 a.m. Saturday. Mrs. Opal Plim of Farmington, head of the Association of Universalist Women, will lead a session of that group Saturday at 10:30 a.m.

Honor Minister, Wife on Sunday

On Sunday evening, Sept. 27, members and friends of the first Methodist Church of Farmington honored Rev. and Mrs. Richard Markham at an "Appreciation and Fellowship Hour" at the church.

Many were present to express their appreciation to the Markhams for a year of service and welcome them back from their summer vacation.

Mrs. Thomas Adecek, general chairman, and her committee members, Mrs. Richard Gaul and Mrs. William Higgins, arranged for the program and refreshments.
