Anyone answering ads for salesmen should understand that the firms are reputable and ethical. There are some which a prospective salesman should investigate carefully. A call to the Better Business Bureau is always a safe procedure. The Enterprise is not always able to check up on individuals or distributors and warns those answering such advertisements that this is entirely their responsibility.

MRS. DAVID KRINGS GR. 6-0411

Mrs. Cyril Johnson, area chairman for the United Food Bank, wishes to thank all of the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts in the area who cooperated so generously in the Kick-off parade Saturday morning. It is the hope of all district chairmen, including Mrs. William Carpenter of this district, that these activities will be as generous in giving as they are in helping with their time. Neighbors will be calling on you, within the next ten days for the housewife's contribution will be Mrs. James Duffy, Mrs. William Carpenter, Mrs. Lawrence Clingan, Mrs. H. Woodward, Mrs. H. Woodward, Mrs. H. Woodward.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Carpenter have just returned from a week spent at Lowell, Michigan near Grayling, where they were boy and arrow deer hunting. They did not bring back a deer, but did enjoy the week spent out of doors. Janet accompanied her parents, while Linda and Barbara spent the week with their grandmother.

By now all the college age young men of the subdivision are back to their studies at various colleges and universities in our state, with the exception of Nelson Hamner, who transferred from University of Michigan to Arizona State University, for health reasons.

NINE LITTLE five year olds began their formal education this fall. They are Mary Carol Dew, Jimmie Vuill, Angela Evangelista, Janet Carpenter, and Tommie Welser all of Dohany Drive; Richard Grohman, and Dick Lane of Shadyridge; and Joan Wald of Power Road. Even little three year old Kay Laine Maneece is going to school. She attends the Shadyridge Nursery School two mornings a week.

Little James Lane was baptized on Our Lady of Sorrows Church last Sunday. He is the seventh child of the Thomas Lanes of Shadyridge. The same

THO THE WIND blows cool, outdoor activities are yet being enjoyed by many. Last Saturday, Arthur Conklin, Jr., and two sons Bobby and Jimmie spent the day fishing on Lake Erie and returned home with a nice mess of perch. We're glad to know that Mr. Conklin has just returned to work after spending the summer in a case of the weather.
