Brownie Troop No. 32 was recently organized in Bel-Aire under the leadership of Mrs. Amy Jagiely and Mrs. Mary Lynott. Following the attendance of four meetings the girls were invested in the 10 Mile School Library Thursday, November 5. At that time they received their Brownie pins. The girls are Kristin Bell, Cynthia Excell, Linda Finley, Diane Jagiely, Vicki Keeler, Kathy Lynott, Karen R. Connor, and Pat J. Taylor. Diane Turner, Patty Williamson, Cynthia Wilson and Diana Wolff, Lorraine Marra, who was elected to be the first meeting. Mothers of the girls who were guests for the ceremony were served punch and cookies by their daughters. Regular meetings are held at the Jagiely residence on Bleking Court.

PERSONAL THANKS are extended to Mrs. Trombley for all those who gave so willing of their time to work for the United Foundation. According to Mrs. Trombley, Bel-Aire's response to the Foundation's plea for funds was very favorable. This year $81.72 was collected, $11.00 over last year's total. He drive this year was under the direction of Lois Cort, June Lieb, Betty Shires and Ruth Trombley. Bel-Aire has these women and their co-workers to thank for without their efforts this subdivision's representation would not have been so great!

Mrs. E. Savely of Bel-Aire was hostess of the Keadallars, Farmington's own choral group, Wednesday evening. The Keadallars performed at the recent benefit of the Farmington Evening Newcomers Club. The group is now preparing for the annual holiday activities. A general business meeting was held and a nominating committee was appointed by president, Mrs. D. Berdeaux.

AGREINGE. THEIR first child is extra special are Lincoln and Mary Avery of Folkstone. Charles Northup weighed 13 lbs. 10 oz. when he was born October 22. Maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Smith from Hancock, Michigan, are guests at the home of the three Averages. The Smiths find their first grandson a real delight. In addition to capturing hearts young Charles has awarded the gift of grandparents to Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Avery of Birmingham.

During the Korean War a helicopter from the heavy cruiser USS Helena made so many successful rescues of downed pilots that it earned the name, "Last Chance Tail".

Last weekend brought out goblins and ghosts of all sizes and shapes. Friday night Betty and Gene Miller held a Halloween party at their home and the highlight of the evening was a treasure hunt in which the guests were searching all over Farmington for clues. Barb and Chuck Fritz, Ethel and Cecil Perkins, Ethel and Sam Begitt, Jewel and Chet Orlowski, June and Bob Ely, Neil and Bob Donovan, Elva and Harold Bunting, Ginny and Jim Coburns, Margaret and William and Eleanor and Red Rask all had a wonderful time at the party.

Saturday afternoon many of the goblins were over at Middlebelt School at the annual fall fair. Four kids in the subdivision won silver dollars in the contest for the best costumes. Diane Hall was a winner with her clown costume. Denise Dawson went as Pocahontas, Sharon Gornak as a princess and Billy Immekus was hilarious as a scrub man. Lots of mothers were busy too, working on the fair. Marian Hall, Maureen Soley, Madeline Ericson and Lillian Roberts were there all day.

On Saturday evening Jean and Bill Frazer had a costume party.

Margaret and Eli Hilliard, Mary and Harold Chellman, Madeline and Eric Ericson, Ann and Ted Thomsen, and Gwen and Dave Wrigley danced and had a good time.

MARY BROSCHE, party chairman, held a Halloween party at her home. The girls went on a nature hike and collected leaves for their lead waxing project. They then returned to Brosche's for cider and donuts. The Brownies were Leslie Smith, Gary Brosche, Cori and Bob Donovan, Elva and Harold Bunting, Ginny and Jim Coburns, Margaret and William and Eleanor and Red Rask all had a wonderful time at the party.

The new Pinocchio Club held its second meeting at Connie Smith's last week. The members who were present were: Max Hall, Madeline Ericson, Betty Blome, Dottie Dawson, Jean Kiley and Betty Prescott.

MABEL and HOWARD Ames are the proud parents of a baby girl. She was born Saturday at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital and weighed 7 pounds, 4 oz. at birth. As yet we have not decided on a name.
