EXPLAINED.

Bacon—What do you understand to be a bore?

Egbert—Why, a bore is a man who insists on telling you the smart things his young son says when you want to tell him the smart things you have said yourself.

COMMON FAILING.

"What's all this eugenics stuff they're talking about?"

"It's about having perfect children."

"Humph! Did you ever hear of fathers and mothers that had any other kind?"

THE REASON.

Actor—You should not speak so harshly to the members of the mob.

Stage Manager—Why not?

Actor—Because you must remember they are super-sensitive.

REALISTIC.

"Have you any alabam stuff written today?"

"Yes, sir; here's a story about the muddy walking."

RIGHT!

"I can properly refer to my occupation as a calling."

"What is it?"

"Telephone operator."

UNDOUBTEDLY.

"My business requires much head work."

"What is it?"

"Making hat trees."

DELICATE SUGGESTION.

He—My dear, this matchbox is like your precious self.

She—In what way, my own?

He—It is matchless.

Told in a Few Words

Chas. Castleden, Cumberland, Wyo., says he had the worse cough a man ever had and cured it in a few days with Dr. Warner's White Wine of Tar.

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama" at Orchestra Hall, Chicago, he was seriously interrupted by the continual coughing of the audience. No one annoys willingly and if people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and tickling in throat would use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and avoid this annoyance. Sold by T. H. McGee.
